'Tug Of War' Marking Red China Probe

Senate Committee Differs On Experts Called To Testify

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate's China hearings are escalating into a tug of war between member of the Foreign Relation Committee over whether expert called to tetify are presenting a balanced picture.

Most of the witnesses so far have been professors who have urged greater efforts by the United States to open doors of communication with the Communist Chinese government.

This prompted Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper of Iowa, the committee's ranking Republican, to suggest that additional witnesses were needed to develop "a different point of view."

The committee agreed to hear some of those he suggested, including one of the GOP's top Asian experts, former Rep. Walter Judd of Minnesota.

When Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., the leading Senate critic of administration policies in Southeast Asia, saw the names of Hickenlooper's witnesses, he said, "I don't think that list gives a balanced point of view."

He recalled he too had suggested some witnesses — including economist J. Kenneth Galbraith, who served as ambassador to India under President John F. Kennedy.

Galbraith, Morse said, had been to Viet Nam on a mission for Kennedy and the late president was studying his report just before he was assassinated in November 1963.

Committee chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., said he was "perfectly willing" to consider more witnesses if that was the committee's wish but he suggested the matter be discussed at a closed hearing.

Four Killed When Train Smashes Car

By The Associated Press

A freight train rammed into a car at a Crawford County crossing not far from Bucyrus late Friday night, killing four persons in the car and sending the weekend traffic toll off to a grim start.

The engineer of the westbound Pennsylvania Railroad freight said the driver of the car tried to stop after seeing the train at the crossing, marked only by a warning sign. But it was too late and the train rammed the vehicle broadside on the right side.

Latest victims, including those in the car-train collision:

Mrs. Harold Kirby, 22, Bucyrus, driver of the car hit by the train.

Larry Burling, 16, Bucyrus.

Astronauts Back At Launch Base

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The Gemni 8 Astronauts returned here today to help experts determine what caused their spacecraft to tumble wildly through space last Wednesday.

Neil A. Armstrong and David R. Scott landed here at 7:58 a.m. aboard an Air Force C135 jet transport after an 8½-hour flight from Hawaii.

At Cape Kennedy, the astronauts will huddle with the National Aeronautics and Space Administration officials for three days in an effort to solve the mystery of the harrowing ride that caused the first emergency landing in the U.S. man in space program.

Armstrong and Scott blasted off from Cape Kennedy at 11:41 a.m. Wednesday and later linked up with an Agena satellite in an historic space feat. But half an hour after linking the joined vehicles were tumbling badly and command pilot Armstrong fought for 30 minutes to free Gemini 8 from the Agena and then to control it.

About 200 newsmen, NASA and Air Force officials and Cape workers greeted the returning astronauts. The public was not permitted on this restricted base.

A large banner on the greeting stand read: "Welcome back Neil, Dave."

Traveling with the Gemini 8 pilots was astronaut Walter M. Schirra Jr. Schirra and Frank Borman, command pilots of Gemini 6 and 7, were completing a good will tour of the Far East when Gemini 8 had its troubles and Schirra joined Armstrong and Scott after they landed.

The astronauts, Armstrong first, stepped from the plane at 8:05 a.m. They waved and walked to the official party that greeted them. They shook hands all around, while photographers darted around them.

U.S. Radio Reports Secret Letter

China Eyes Possible War With Soviet, Claim Says

BERLIN (AP) — A U. S. radio station in West Berlin says it has learned that the Soviet Communist party secretly spread charges that Red China has been preparing for possible war with the Soviet Union.

The U. S. Information Service station RIAS—Radio in the American Sector — made the claim in a broadcast Thursday. It said the secret letter sent to Communist parties abroad also accused Peking of fostering a long war in Viet Nam in an effort to touch off a clash between the United States and the Soviet Union.

The station said the letter was sent last February by the Central Committee of the Soviet Communist party to foreign Communist parties, including the Socialist Unity party in East Germany. The RIAS broadcast was especially beamed at East Germany.

The station said the letter instructed foreign party leaders to tell their members of the letter's contents by word of mouth.

The broadcast said the Soviet letter charged that the Chinese have:

—Ignored Soviet attempts to heal the ideological split.

— Systematically prepared their population for an attack either from the Soviet Union alone or from both the U.S.S.R. and the United State.

—Stepped up provocations along the Far East border with the Soviet Union.

—Caused the Vietnamese people great damage by promoting the idea of a long war in Viet Nam.

—Rejected every Soviet effort to coordinate Communist aid to North Viet Nam.

—Blocked shipping of Soviet military aid to Hanoi by air or rail through China.

U.S. To Sign New Arts Pact With Soviet

WASHINGTON (AP) — After a puzzling three-day delay, the United States has told the Soviet Union it now is prepared to sign a new U.S.-Soviet cultural exchange agreement.

The agreement was ready for signing Wednesday, but President Johnson reportedly intervened because he was concerned about provisions to guarantee that the Soviets would live up to it.

White House press secretary Bill D. Moyers said Friday negotiations had not been concluded on two points. He referred further inquiries to the State Department.

State Department press officer Robert J. McCloskey also said there were "a couple of matters to be worked out" but didn't elaborate. Later, however, McCloskey announced:

"The United States told the Soviet government tonight we are ready to sign the text of the exchange agreement. We are prepared to sign whenever and wherever it is mutually convenient."

Gunman Slain After Holding 3 As Hostages

4 Hours Of Terror For Oregon Family Follow Holdup Bid

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Police said a fleeing gunman's chance selection of a hiding place led to four hours of terror for the Marvin Keeler family, and death for the gunman, Friday night.

Police said they fatally shot Harvey LeRoy Baker, 33, after he held three members of the Keeler family hostage in their home, led officers on a wild chase through downtown Eugene and wounded a passerby.

Baker, also known as David LeRoy Lathman, died in Sacred Heart Hospital of head wounds.

Police said identification papers found on the man showed both Modesto, Calif., and Salem, Ore., as home towns.

The wounded passerby, Milton Seligman, 29, Eugene, was shot just above the collar bone and was reported progressing satisfactorily.

The wild spree started late in the afternoon when a gunman attempted to hold up the One O'Clock Market. A police officer accosted the fleeing man, and shots were exchanged.

The man ducked into the Keeler home. Police, armed with shotguns and machine guns, surrounded the house.

The robber allowed Keeler to take their 18-month-old child outside, but held the other three members of the family, including 3-year-old Martin, at gunpoint for three hours.

"He talked to the older boy some, watching television, including newscasts about himself. It seemed to tickle him," Mrs. Keeler said.

After about three hours, the robber demanded a get-away car and got it. He herded the Keelers into the car, leaving Martin behind.

Keeler drove. The gunman and Mrs. Keeler sat in the back.

"It was a wild drive for quite a bit. He had my husband stop once to tell him that he was going to start shooting into the crowd if they didn't stop following us," Mrs. Keeler told newsmen.

The gunman fired then, and hit Seligman.

B52s Bomb Area Which Fell To Reds

Ordered After All GIs, Vietnamese Had Gotten Out

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U. S. Air Force B52 bomber hit the Ashau Special Forces camp which fell to North Vietnamese forces last week, a military spokesman announced today.

The strike, Friday night, by the giant eight-engine bombers from Guam was ordered after intelligence indicated that all the Americans originally in the camp now are accounted for and the Vietnamese support troops who survived a regimental assault had been extricated.

The northern regulars hit the camp from all sides and smothered it March 10. Only a tremendous effort by Marine and Air Force helicopter units saved a majority of the men from annihilation.

The Communist troops from the north spent the next several days building new fortifications which have been blasted several times by American air strikes.

The B52s put the final crunch on the area. There was no evaluation of results and an Air Force officer said it was reasonable to presume the enemy forces had withdrawn, probably across the border into Laos.

Ground action against the Viet Cong produced only slight contact today. The 25th Division probing about 30 miles southwest of Saigon closed out Operation Honolulu in which U. S. troops chased the Communists out of an old stronghold, killed 49 and captured 13 Viet Cong.

A company of U. S. Marines got into a firefight during the night at Bich Nam, eight miles south of Da Nang where the Viet Cong have laid many ambushes in the past. The Leathernecks suffered moderate casualties from heavy mortar fire and lost a helicopter called in to fly the wounded out.

Two more companies of Marines came to the rescue and superior fire power forced the Viet Cong to withdraw.

The aerial attack took precedence Friday both in South and North Viet Nam. One of the heaviest assaults on fortified Viet Cong positions about 55 miles northwest of Nha Trang was prompted by information found on the body of an enemy company commander several days ago.

In the north, the Air Force and Navy carrier pilots flew 47 missions in clearing weather conditions which enabled pilots to assess some success.

A Navy A4 lost on a reconnaissance mission near Vinh Thursday was written off. The fate of the pilot is unknown.

War Profiteer Executed

Fear Stirred In Ranks Of Viet 'Black Market'

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The execution of a war profiteer has sent a wave of fear through the ranks of Viet Nam's bigtime black marketeers. But for the small time operator it is business as usual.

Ta Vinh, a Chinese businessman convicted of profiteering was executed March 14. Since then some merchants deeply involved in large scale operations reportedly have fled the country. There has been a run on black market Hong Kong dollars as the profiteers, mostly Chinese businessmen, try to get their capital out of the country.

Others are reported doubling and redoubling bribes to highly placed officials in hopes of continued protection. Several are said to have smuggled detailed accounts of the operations out of the country complete with the names of government officials involved with them and incriminating evidence.

A highly reliable source said many big operators are waiting to see how serious the government is about its often promised crack-down on war profiteers.

There is some feeling that the heat will be off soon since too many high government officials, poorly paid for their official duties, depend on kickbacks or actually share in the profiteering.

The threat of a crack-down does not seem to have bothered the little operators, in fact the number and size of sidewalk black market stalls appear to have increased since Premier Nguyen Cao Ky announced the cleanup months ago.

One small operator does business across the street from the U.S. Information Service. Another flourishes near the U.S. Embassy in downtown Saigon. They sell clothing, American canned goods and such items as toothpaste.

Community College Raises Questions, Furman Points Out

By BYRON EELLS

The type of higher education program to be offered in Columbiana County — whether a broadened program by the Kent State University Academic Center or a community college — is expected to be decided by the Ohio Board of Regents at its April 15 meeting in Columbus.

The regents, meeting Friday at the Ohio Departments Building, agreed unanimously to take under consideration the proposal to grant a charter for a community college and a request from Kent State to redesignate the East Liverpool and Salem centers as the Columbiana County Academic Center, with instruction to continue at each.

THE FIVE members of the nine - member board attending yesterday's session voted unanimously to postpone a decision after John Marshall Briley of Toledo, chairman, explained the regents did not receive the community college plan until March 11.

Briley said he had no opportunity to examine it and Dr. John D. Millett, chancellor, said he personally hadn't examined it. Other staff members had looked at the plan only briefly, he said.

Questioned after the session, James M. Furman, executive director, said the staff expects to have a recommendation on the type of program ready for next month's meeting.

During yesterday's hearing, Furman told the regents a superficial study of the community college plan had raised a number of questions concerning curriculum and financing for which additional information is required.

Dr. Richard Whalen, director of planning for the proposed county college, said he would be happy to cooperate with the regents' staff in furnishing any information needed.

There were no comments by the regents or staff members on

Judge Louis Tobin of East Liverpool was elected vice chairman.

Community College Raises Questions, Furman Points Out

By BYRON EELLS

The type of higher education program to be offered in Columbiana County — whether a broadened program by the Kent State University Academic Center or a community college — is expected to be decided by the Ohio Board of Regents at its April 15 meeting in Columbus.

The regents, meeting Friday at the Ohio Departments Building, agreed unanimously to take under consideration the proposal to grant a charter for a community college and a request from Kent State to redesignate the East Liverpool and Salem centers as the Columbiana County Academic Center, with instruction to continue at each.

THE FIVE members of the nine - member board attending yesterday's session voted unanimously to postpone a decision after John Marshall Briley of Toledo, chairman, explained the regents did not receive the community college plan until March 11.

Briley said he had no opportunity to examine it and Dr. John D. Millett, chancellor, said he personally hadn't examined it. Other staff members had looked at the plan only briefly, he said.

Questioned after the session, James M. Furman, executive director, said the staff expects to have a recommendation on the type of program ready for next month's meeting.

During yesterday's hearing, Furman told the regents a superficial study of the community college plan had raised a number of questions concerning curriculum and financing for which additional information is required.

Dr. Richard Whalen, director of planning for the proposed county college, said he would be happy to cooperate with the regents' staff in furnishing any information needed.

There were no comments by the regents or staff members on

Gosney Named Head Of College Trustees

Don R. Gosney of Columbiana was elected chairman of the Board of Trustees for the proposed Columbiana County community college during a meeting Friday in Columbus following presentation of the plan to the Board of Regents.

He succeeds Oliver H. Payne, Lisbon school superintendent.

Judge Louis Tobin of East Liverpool was elected vice chairman.

Spring Due To Arrive In Name Only Sunday

Spring is due to arrive officially Sunday at 8:35 p.m., but the weatherman doesn't seem inclined to cooperate.

His forecast for the weekend is anything but spring-like, with colder tonight and a few light showers or snow flurries predicted. The low is expected to range between 30 and 35.

Sunday is to be fair, with little change in temperature.

the KSU proposal submitted by Dr. Robert White, university president.

Earlier this week, Dr. Millett said any decision would be on an "either-or" basis, explaining he did not believe the county could support both a community college and a KSU branch because of the limited financial aid and student potential.

PAUL H. BLAIR, East Liverpool superintendent of schools, spoke on behalf of the Kent proposal.

Speaking for the community college were Oliver H. Payne, superintendent of Lisbon schools and a trustee of the college; Lowell Myers, Wellsville superintendent and a trustee of the college; James McBride, superintendent of county schools, and Paul Brittain of East Palestine, another trustee.

The presentation of both proposals required about 40 minutes.

Speaking first, Payne said a survey indicated a need for "multi - type education." "We don't have the broad educational program our county needs," he declared.

The Lisbon superintendent emphasized the community college trustees tried carefully to follow the procedures outlined by the regents' guide. "We have steadfastly kept the needs of our youth uppermost of all."

He told the regents that "time is a very important factor. There is unrest and confusion. Many are awaiting the results of the meeting today and hope that you thoroughly understand the situation."

Payne said he had been contacted by parents in three sections of the county who are concerned about higher education and indicated that he believed the two Kent centers "would lead to a sectional battle."

He also apologized to the board for what he termed "a slightly altered atmosphere."

ASKED BY Dr. Millett to discuss what the superficial study had revealed, Furman said the major problem was the lack of time to examine it thoroughly and the lack of information.

The executive director said the staff generally works on plans for about two months and cited a plan for a Montgomery County college which was drafted three times before being presented in final form for approval by the regents.

Furman said the community college proposal did not include a sample curriculum or a description of specific programs to be offered.

A survey of students showed 77 per cent wished to enroll in technical education rather than liberal arts, he said.

Business and industries in the county queried about scarcity of types and future demands indicated they wanted programs technically-oriented. Non - manufacturing industries listed their priority needs as outside salesmen, auto technicians, secretaries and foremen, while manufacturing industries reported needs for foremen, draftsmen and designers, secretaries and outside salesmen in that order, Furman said.

The executive director said he was concerned because some of the occupations show a need for vocational training which could be offered at high school level. There was no need indicated for engineering technicians, which he said is usually the core of a technical school.

Some of the proposed programs are considered higher education, but many would not be degree credit courses and, therefore, would not qualify for state aid by the regents, Furman continued.

DISCUSSING the proposed budgets, Furman said neither the capital facilities nor operating budgets followed the plans outlined in the guides for community colleges.

Under the capital facilities budget, the plan provides for use of the former school on N. Market St. in Lisbon for temporary quarters to be remodeled by the Lisbon Chamber of Commerce. Two sites are suggested as possible permanent location.

However, there is no estimate on the cost of renovating the Lisbon school building and there is no commitment for any local tax support for capital facilities, although there was some reference to "a levy for 0.5 of a mill or so," Furman continued.

Furman said also there is no commitment for local tax support for current operating costs and no indication of what money would be involved.

"They propose to finance operating costs from two sources —tuition fees of $360 per year for full - time students and state aid of $200 a year per student."

He said the proposed tuition fees are higher than currently being charged in Lorain and Cuyahoga counties schools, where tuition is $275 for a full-time students.

The board cannot guarantee support now and on July 1, 1967, because it is not in the appropriation, he continued. The board would have to seek the funds from the Emergency Board.

If the $70,000 in state money is not appropriated, the only source of income for the college would be student fees. "You can't possibly handle a community college on student fees alone unless they are raised considerably higher than they are now," he declared.

Although the proposed student fees are higher than other colleges, the support per student is lower, ranging from $486 to $552 assuming there is state aid, the executive director said.

The support in Cuyahoga County per student is $656 with little technical training, $817 in Lorain County and $750 in the Clark County Technical Institute. Furman said, adding that technical training forces the support cost up.

HE SAID the plan also provides for the Lisbon Chamber of Commerce to provide $50,000 in the next two years to support the president's office, including salary, secretary and travel expenses. However, there is no guarantee the money will be forthcoming or that the furniture and equipment will be donated.

DR. WHITE then presented his proposal, pointing out that he regretted that it appears that Kent State "has been interjected into a controversial question."

"We have always striven for the finest possible local cooperation. We won't stay unless invited and will exit gracefully any time we are told to do so."

Dr. White said specific proposals would be submitted if the regents gave general approval to a Columbiana County Academic Center. "We will move into full day operation as rapidly as possible."

Kent has been working for a year to develop the associate degree program to be offered at the academic centers, he said, and is awaiting a report when a full - time building will be available in East Liverpool and discussing with the Salem advisory committee what can be done about a building there.

He pointed out that 90 per cent of the county's population resides within 12 miles of the two centers and cited the long history of the technical school in Salem which would be associated with the Kent program.

Dr. White presented to the board letters from the East Liverpool Board of Education, Chamber of Commerce, Community Improvement Corp., City Council and a long list of organizations favoring the Kent proposal and petitions with more than 4,000 signatures urging retention of the Kent centers.

Letters from the Salem Board of Education, Council and Chamber of Commerce and organizations in Columbiana and Leetonia also were presented by the KSU president.

EMPHASIZING that he was "not in association with anyone" and was "not hostile to Kent State," McBride said he believed a community college "would offer many more opportunities."

"If only academic work leading to a degree is offered, we won't have much more than we have had in the past. Unless we give a much wider program, our people will believe they are being cheated."

Recalling the formation of the community college through the county commissioners, the county superintendent said a higher education committee was formed of residents from all areas in the county, including East Liverpool and Salem, after it was learned that East Liverpool was working with Kent for an academic center.

"I want the best for our county," McBridge told the regents in conclusion.

Blair said East Liverpool citizens were in an "uproar" when they became aware of the "either-or" proposition. Many people called to inquire what could be done and senior and junior high school pupils were anxious to help, he said.

"The attitude resulted in securing in 2½ days more than 4,000 names, including 250 from neighboring school district and a number from the county," expressing the desire for retention of the Kent centers, Blair said.

He told the regents that at present 60 students at the City Hospital School of Nursing must be transported by bus to the College of Steubenville for a chemistry course.

"That can be offered next year in our high school through Kent State," the superintendent said.

Predicting an enrollment of more than 400 in East Liverpool next year, Blair declared, "I beg you to use good judgment and keep Kent State in Columbiana County."

SPEAKING only a few minutes, Myers identified Wellsville as the school district where 250 signatures were secured.

Brittain, past president of the East Palestine Chamber of Commerce, said he had several sheets of names, adding that he believed the city has "99 per cent in favor of the community college."

He termed a reference by Dr. White to East Palestine "as probably an inaccuracy," but the Kent president replied that he did not make the statement.

In addition to Blair, others from East Lvierpool attending were Frank A. Dawson, who spearheaded the movement for the Academic Center here, and Samuel W. Brown, vice president, and Harry D. McConville members of the Board of Education. All four men are also members of the Academic Center's advisory committee.

Supt. Victor Wood of Salem also attended. He was accompanied by Holland Cameron, director of the Salem School of Technology.

With the exception of Judge Louis Tobin of East Liverpool, all of the community college trustees attended. Besides Payne, Myers and Brittain, they are Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, Robert Rice of Salem, Dan Furey of Hanoverton and Clyde Harrold of Columbiana, secretary.

Earlier in the meeting, the regents allocated $55,500,000 appropriated by the state legislature for technical institutes, community colleges and university branches.

The allocation included $2 million held in reserve which Dr. Millett said "could be used for one more project."

Regents attending yesterday's meeting were Briley, J. Ottis Ford, vice chairman, and Robert Lazarus of Columbus, Dr. Maceo R. Clarke of Dayton, secretary, and J. Ward Keener of Akron.

SPEAKING only a few minutes, Myers identified Wellsville as the school district where 250 signatures were secured.

Brittain, past president of the East Palestine Chamber of Commerce, said he had several sheets of names, adding that he believed the city has "99 per cent in favor of the community college."

He termed a reference by Dr. White to East Palestine "as probably an inaccuracy," but the Kent president replied that he did not make the statement.

In addition to Blair, others from East Lverpool attending were Frank A. Dawson, who spearheaded the movement for the Academic Center here, and Samuel W. Brown, vice president, and Harry D. McConville members of the Board of Education. All four men are also members of the Academic Center's advisory committee.

Supt. Victor Wood of Salem also attended. He was accompanied by Holland Cameron, director of the Salem School of Technology.

With the exception of Judge Louis Tobin of East Liverpool, all of the community college trustees attended. Besides Payne, Myers and Brittain, they are Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, Robert Rice of Salem, Dan Furey of Hanoverton and Clyde Harrold of Columbiana, secretary.

Earlier in the meeting, the regents allocated $55,500,000 appropriated by the state legislature for technical institutes, community colleges and university branches.

The allocation included $2 million held in reserve which Dr. Millett said "could be used for one more project."

Regents attending yesterday's meeting were Briley, J. Ottis Ford, vice chairman, and Robert Lazarus of Columbus, Dr. Maceo R. Clarke of Dayton, secretary, and J. Ward Keener of Akron.

Action Slated On City Funds

Council action is slated Monday night on the annual appropriation ordinance, providing approximately $1,700,000 for operation of the municipal government during 1966.

The ordinance was drafted by the finance committee, headed by Councilman Robert W. Sample. Since Jan. 1, the city has been operating on the customary temporary appropriation, which provides funds for day - to - day expenses through March 31.

In addition, Council is scheduled to act on an ordinance spelling out new regulations and fees for street - opening permits. The legislation provides a fee of $10 for opening any type of street except concrete, for which the charge is $50.

When a concrete pavement is opened, the hole must be rectangular and the concrete must be sawed — not broken to bits, the ordinance provides. An "apron" a foot larger than the excavation must be left around the edges as a shelf to support new paving.

The trench must be backfilled with selected material specified by the engineer's office and the repaving must be done under the supervsiion of the engineer's office, the legislation says. The bill allows a total elapsed time of seven days from the time the pavement is opened until it is replaced.

When a street with another type of surface is opened, the legislation provides, the street department will do the new paving work at a charge of $18 per square yard. However, the permit holder may do the repaving at the option of the engineer's office, but if the work is ruled improper it will be performed again at the permit - holder's expense. The legislation provides a fine of up to $200 for a violation.

Council also is slated to vote on a resolution authorizing the Board of Public Utilities to call for bids on a year's supplies for the water department. The board will take offers on:

250 tons each of hydrate of pebble lime and aluminum sulfate; 50 tons of activated charcoal; 18,000 pounds of liquid chlorine; 5,000 pounds of sodium chlorite.

One thousand feet each of 4, 8, 10, and 12-inch cast iron pipe and 2,000 feet of 6-inch pipe, 200 tons of dry sand and cement mixture for use in the annual reservoir repair program and 100 water meters.

Tank Periled By Fire Here

Fanned by wind, a stubborn grass fire shot flames 25 feet in the air and threatened a 7,000-gallon oil tank before being quelled Friday afternoon at the Economy Manufacturing Co., 1038 Railroad St.

Asst. Chief James Pelley blamed negligence in burning on a windy day for the blaze that required the efforts of six firemen from Central and East End stations before being extinguished.

Nearly 80 minutes was needed to put out the fire, which Pelley said started when Kenneth Bryan was burning trash in a barrel and the wind blew burning paper onto the grass, setting it and a stack of pallets piled alongside the tank on fire.

Flames were leaping 25 feet above the tank which contained 7,000 gallons of transformer oil, the assistant chief said.

Firemen used nine sections of 2½-inch hose, four sections of 1½-inch line and a booster line in fighting the fire. The alarm was received at 2:39 p. m.

Local Firm's History Reviewed At Meeting

Arthur V. Doak, president and general manager of the Milligan Hardware and Supply Co., reviewed the history of the company at the luncheon meeting of the Lions Club Friday at the Travelers Hotel.

"Milligan's Hardware is the oldest existing business in East Liverpool — 84 years old, 93 if you include previous ownership," he began. He then traced the beginnings of the concern in a building at 403 Market St., under the name of Eagle Hardware.

IN 1881, according to Doak's records, T. V. Milligan Sr., a circuit preacher, purchased a half interest in Eagle Hardware from Mrs. J. B. McDonald. "In 1884, Eagle Hardware was moved from Market St. to a building at 5th and Washington Sts. In 1894 it was incorporated, with the name changed to The Milligan Hardware and Supply."

"In 1898, the property at Diamond and Crook Alleys and 5th St. was purchased. The building at this location had two stories in front and a shed in the rear one story high, which was later made into a six-story warehouse building."

Doak then recalled two disastrous fires, in 1905 and 1925, which struck the downtown section.

"The 1905 fire started in the basement of the W. H. Gass Shoe Store on April 30. The fire threatened at one time almost all of the uptown area. The estimate of damage was a half million dollars, of which $300,000 was covered by insurance.

"Roughly 105 firemen from out of town, plus the local department and scores of residents helped battle the flames. The buildings destroyed were the Smith Fowler Building, the S. G. Porter Building, the Ikirt Building, the Will L. Thompson Building and Milligan's Hardware."

AFTER THE fire the hardware concern constructed a six-story brick building. "Apparently everything went fine until 1925, when on Feb. 22 — fire struck again. Damage was estimated at $750,000 to one million dollars. The flames destroyed the six - story Milligan Building, the three - story Wasbutzky Building and part of the Exchange Building.

"The Milligan Building, now leased to Peoples Drugstore, was built in 1925. The property across the alley was bought and the old pipe shop was constructed there. In 1944, we purchased the present Milligan's Hardware on Smith St. from Faulk Brothers Co.," Doak said.

He was introduced by Don Wolfe, program chairman.

It was announced that nominations will be heard at meetings prior to the election on April 15.

The board of directors met following the program.

Minstrel practice will be held Sunday afternoon at 2.

Edward Custer presided.

Man's Burned In Home Fire

A Glenmoor man was burned on the hand and arm in a fire at his home Friday night about 8.

The blaze, at the home of Lester Lemley of the Cannons Mills Rd., was caused by a short circuit in an extension cord, according to Glenmoor Fire Chief Kenneth Mills.

Firemen said the cord shorted in an electric outlet and became overheated, setting fire to window curtains.

The wall, curtains, window and a portion of a carpet were damaged. Heavy smoke filled the house.

Lemley suffered first- and second - degree burns of the left hand, wrist and upper arm when he pulled the cord out of the outlet. He was treated at City Hospital.

Firemen said the fire was out on arrival, but they used exhaust fans to clear the smoke from the home.

Sewickley Man, Juvenile Nabbed In Bank Holdup

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The FBI said today it has arrested a Sewickley man and a juvenile in the $3,770 holdup of a suburban Pittsburgh branch bank Wednesday.

The man, Joseph Lewis Lee, 27, was arrested at his job in a steel mill Friday night and will be arraigned on charges of armed robbery today, said Ian D. McLennan, agent in charge of the Pittsburgh office.

McLennan said the 16-year-old juvenile is being held in the Butler County Detention Home pending action on a request to prosecute filed by the FBI.

The agent said the two men were the ones who entered the Hampton Twp. branch office of the Mellon National Bank & Trust Co., pointed a gun at a teller and ordered her to fill a green paper bag with money.

None of the money has been recovered, said the FBI.

McLennan said agents are investigating the possibility that a third person may have been involved in the robbery.

Action Slated On City Funds

Council action is slated Monday night on the annual appropriation ordinance, providing approximately $1,700,000 for operation of the municipal government during 1966.

The ordinance was drafted by the finance committee, headed by Councilman Robert W. Sample. Since Jan. 1, the city has been operating on the customary temporary appropriation, which provides funds for day - to - day expenses through March 31.

In addition, Council is scheduled to act on an ordinance spelling out new regulations and fees for street - opening permits. The legislation provides a fee of $10 for opening any type of street except concrete, for which the charge is $50.

When a concrete pavement is opened, the hole must be rectangular and the concrete must be sawed — not broken to bits, the ordinance provides. An "apron" a foot larger than the excavation must be left around the edges as a shelf to support new paving.

The trench must be backfilled with selected material specified by the engineer's office and the repaving must be done under the supervsiion of the engineer's office, the legislation says. The bill allows a total elapsed time of seven days from the time the pavement is opened until it is replaced.

When a street with another type of surface is opened, the legislation provides, the street department will do the new paving work at a charge of $18 per square yard. However, the permit holder may do the repaving at the option of the engineer's office, but if the work is ruled improper it will be performed again at the permit - holder's expense. The legislation provides a fine of up to $200 for a violation.

Council also is slated to vote on a resolution authorizing the Board of Public Utilities to call for bids on a year's supplies for the water department. The board will take offers on:

250 tons each of hydrate of pebble lime and aluminum sulfate; 50 tons of activated charcoal; 18,000 pounds of liquid chlorine; 5,000 pounds of sodium chlorite.

One thousand feet each of 4, 8, 10, and 12-inch cast iron pipe and 2,000 feet of 6-inch pipe, 200 tons of dry sand and cement mixture for use in the annual reservoir repair program and 100 water meters.

In Red Cross Training

First Men Finish Course

The first two men to take formal social welfare training in the Area Red Cross Chapter were among 15 district residents who received certificates Friday at the chapter headquarters.

Joseph J. Sullivan of 234 W. 4th St., left, and William McNicol of St. Clair Ave. are shown with Mrs. James Lowe of Gilson Ave. looking at a certificate.

Mrs. J. Edward Monier, chairman of social welfare aides, and Mrs. J. Donald Thompson, chairman of volunteers, presented the certificates and pins to the group.

Those in the course completed 22 hours of classroom instruction on procedures in helping local servicemen and the families under military regulations.

Also completing the course were Mrs. Jean Berman, Mrs. Grace Chema, Mrs. Rowena Cooper, Mrs. Dorothy Davis, Mrs. Angela Dierker, Mrs. Ruth Eiferd, Miss Catherine Franzetta, Mrs. Anna Jean Hobbs, Mrs. Rhoda Lowe, Mrs. Bonnie Porter, Mrs. Frances Rogers, Mrs. Mareta Smith and Mrs. Winifred Taylor.

The volunteers will work in the local chapter office and also will make calls on families of men in service to explain Red Cross services when the enlistee or inductee has requested that such a home visit be made.

Tank Periled By Fire Here

Fanned by wind, a stubborn grass fire shot flames 25 feet in the air and threatened a 7,000-gallon oil tank before being quelled Friday afternoon at the Economy Manufacturing Co., 1038 Railroad St.

Asst. Chief James Pelley blamed negligence in burning on a windy day for the blaze that required the efforts of six firemen from Central and East End stations before being extinguished.

Nearly 80 minutes was needed to put out the fire, which Pelley said started when Kenneth Bryan was burning trash in a barrel and the wind blew burning paper onto the grass, setting it and a stack of pallets piled alongside the tank on fire.

Flames were leaping 25 feet above the tank which contained 7,000 gallons of transformer oil, the assistant chief said.

Firemen used nine sections of 2½-inch hose, four sections of 1½-inch line and a booster line in fighting the fire. The alarm was received at 2:39 p. m.

Local Firm's History Reviewed At Meeting

Arthur V. Doak, president and general manager of the Milligan Hardware and Supply Co., reviewed the history of the company at the luncheon meeting of the Lions Club Friday at the Travelers Hotel.

"Milligan's Hardware is the oldest existing business in East Liverpool — 84 years old, 93 if you include previous ownership," he began. He then traced the beginnings of the concern in a building at 403 Market St., under the name of Eagle Hardware.

IN 1881, according to Doak's records, T. V. Milligan Sr., a circuit preacher, purchased a half interest in Eagle Hardware from Mrs. J. B. McDonald. "In 1884, Eagle Hardware was moved from Market St. to a building at 5th and Washington Sts. In 1894 it was incorporated, with the name changed to The Milligan Hardware and Supply."

"In 1898, the property at Diamond and Crook Alleys and 5th St. was purchased. The building at this location had two stories in front and a shed in the rear one story high, which was later made into a six-story warehouse building."

Doak then recalled two disastrous fires, in 1905 and 1925, which struck the downtown section.

"The 1905 fire started in the basement of the W. H. Gass Shoe Store on April 30. The fire threatened at one time almost all of the uptown area. The estimate of damage was a half million dollars, of which $300,000 was covered by insurance.

"Roughly 105 firemen from out of town, plus the local department and scores of residents helped battle the flames. The buildings destroyed were the Smith Fowler Building, the S. G. Porter Building, the Ikirt Building, the Will L. Thompson Building and Milligan's Hardware."

AFTER THE fire the hardware concern constructed a six-story brick building. "Apparently everything went fine until 1925, when on Feb. 22 — fire struck again. Damage was estimated at $750,000 to one million dollars. The flames destroyed the six - story Milligan Building, the three - story Wasbutzky Building and part of the Exchange Building.

"The Milligan Building, now leased to Peoples Drugstore, was built in 1925. The property across the alley was bought and the old pipe shop was constructed there. In 1944, we purchased the present Milligan's Hardware on Smith St. from Faulk Brothers Co.," Doak said.

He was introduced by Don Wolfe, program chairman.

It was announced that nominations will be heard at meetings prior to the election on April 15.

The board of directors met following the program.

Minstrel practice will be held Sunday afternoon at 2.

Edward Custer presided.

Man's Burned In Home Fire

A Glenmoor man was burned on the hand and arm in a fire at his home Friday night about 8.

The blaze, at the home of Lester Lemley of the Cannons Mills Rd., was caused by a short circuit in an extension cord, according to Glenmoor Fire Chief Kenneth Mills.

Firemen said the cord shorted in an electric outlet and became overheated, setting fire to window curtains.

The wall, curtains, window and a portion of a carpet were damaged. Heavy smoke filled the house.

Lemley suffered first- and second - degree burns of the left hand, wrist and upper arm when he pulled the cord out of the outlet. He was treated at City Hospital.

Firemen said the fire was out on arrival, but they used exhaust fans to clear the smoke from the home.

Sewickley Man, Juvenile Nabbed In Bank Holdup

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The FBI said today it has arrested a Sewickley man and a juvenile in the $3,770 holdup of a suburban Pittsburgh branch bank Wednesday.

The man, Joseph Lewis Lee, 27, was arrested at his job in a steel mill Friday night and will be arraigned on charges of armed robbery today, said Ian D. McLennan, agent in charge of the Pittsburgh office.

McLennan said the 16-year-old juvenile is being held in the Butler County Detention Home pending action on a request to prosecute filed by the FBI.

The agent said the two men were the ones who entered the Hampton Twp. branch office of the Mellon National Bank & Trust Co., pointed a gun at a teller and ordered her to fill a green paper bag with money.

None of the money has been recovered, said the FBI.

McLennan said agents are investigating the possibility that a third person may have been involved in the robbery.

Daylight Time Must Be Saved

Ever since the end of World War II, Ohio has been a state divided on Daylight Saving Time.

During the war, as a power conservation measure, all of the United States — and all of Ohio — was placed by Congress on Daylight Time. Northeastern Ohio cities liked it and voted, by local option, to keep it. Elsewhere, Ohioans chose to stay on Eastern Standard Time.

A dozen or more proposals for establishing uniform time statewide, either "fast" or "slow," have failed in the Ohio General Assembly.

NOW IT LOOKS as though the issue finally is going to be resolved one way or another. The U. S. House has passed a bill providing that states must have uniform time during the summer of 1967. Senate leaders are predicting ultimate enactment of the measure. The next Ohio General Assembly may have a hot potato on its hands.

The bill provide that the Interstate Commerce Commission must set up Daylight Time for every state, uniformly throughout the state, according to the time zone in which it is located.

This will happen, according to the bill, unless a state legislature votes to keep Standard Time.

In any event, Ohio's time then will be uniform. If the Assembly does nothing, all of Ohio will be on "fast" time during six months in 1967. If the Assembly votes for "slow" time, that will be the rule for all of Ohio. East Liverpool would lose its Daylight Saving.

Most local residents probably hope the Assembly does nothing. They have become so accustomed to Daylight Time they would balk at any prospect of giving it up.

It is too early for any such move to get under way, but it seems likely that legislators outside the Daylight Time belt will attempt to force the issue in the next Assembly. If they do, all of northeastern Ohio will need to combine forces in an all-out effort to persuade a majority of the Assembly to keep Daylight Time and permit it to be established on a statewide basis, as it was during World War II.

Biggest complaint against Daylight Saving elsewhere in Ohio has seemed to come from the farmers who argue that their livestock gets up by the sun, not the clock, and they must do their milking and other chores accordingly.

In Daylight Saving areas, farmers do exactly this. They do their chores at the same time by the sun and an hour later by the clock. If they milk now at 6 a.m., they will milk through the summer at 7 a.m. The cows don't know the difference. Only the clocks are different.

Meanwhile, city and suburban dwellers, who are in the majority, have an opportunity to enjoy the outdoors an hour longer during the outdoor - beckoning weather of summer. They can swim, play golf and tennis and baseball, fish, mow their lawns, tend their gardens and whatnot in healthful outdoor exercise after work.

Some of the major labor unions opposed Daylight Saving at the beginning in the fear that inconvenience their members working on early morning shifts. They long ago dropped this objection, because most of their members appreciate the hour of additional daylight for recreation at the end of the day.

THE FARMERS have become accustomed to the transition in the Daylight Time areas. It shouldn't be hard for farmers in "slow" time localities to do likewise.

Come April 24, East Liverpool and other portions of northeastern Ohio will have Daylight Time again for six months.

But come 1967, there may be a battle about it in the Assembly. Daylight Time enthusiasts will need to work hard for victory.

Up From The Depths

We can look forward to official revelations some years hence of the frantic search for the atomic bomb that fell into the water off the coast of Spain last Jan. 17 and was not found for three months.

Before it was located and recovered procedures started, millions of dollars had been spent, thousands of people had been scared out of their wits, the tourist industry of Spain had sustained a setback, the United States had deservedly been criticized for what seemed to have been a dangerous procedure in refueling B52 bombers over populated areas and a great many officials had aged perceptibly.

Those who know most about atomic bombs aged most. It was all very well to issue hearty reassurances that no danger of exposion or radiation was imminent in the one bomb of the four that fell in the wreckage of the two planes involved in the accident, but the reassurances were not reassuring.

No one could know at the time that all the fail-safe devices had done what they were supposed to do. No one could know what would happen if the one bomb that had not been recovered on land and therefore must have fallen into the ocean could not be found. No one could know what danger was potential in an atomic bomb that had been lost, to all intents and purposes.

It will make a fascinating story when it finally is told. All that has been told so far is a briefed-down synopsis. The bomb has been found and is being recovered. Three months of agonizing fear and uncertainty are over

In A Better Ordered World

The French government is hearing objections from localities that will be economically hurt if President de Gaulle breaks up NATO.

One of the oddities of a world in which everybody bites the hand that feeds it sooner or later is coming to the surface in France.

The ingrates who do the biting always have a change of heart if the hand is withdrawn. They would like to retain eating privileges while asserting biting privileges.

Even the Cubans who forced the United States out of Cuba were overjoyed to have the U:S. base at Guantanamo remain intact because Cubans employed there depended on it for their livelihood.

Among the hardest hit if the United States had to pull out of South Viet Nam would be its enemies, because they have had great success stealing and black-marketing U.S. supplies and at one time were heavily dependent on captured U.S. military equipment to keep the war going.

The economy of South Korea is geared to U.S. spending, as is the economy of every small nation where this country maintains large military operations.

West Germany thrives on the economic stimulation of U.S. dollars. It is an old story with an unhappy ending. Governments that get the benefit of dollars spent to keep the sun from setting on Old Glory ultimately turn sour and demand that the United States pull out and stay out.

In a better ordered world, the United States never would go any place it was not invited to go and never would overstay its welcome. It never would stand accused of intervention. It would insist on popular demand for its presence anywhere outside its own borders and in the absence of popular demand would revert to the isolation that once was its trademark.

Would this mean a return to isolationism? Not at all. If the United States insisted on popular demand as a prerequisite for its presence anywhere outside its own borders, the demand would be forthcoming. By going at its 20th century destiny of showing Old Glory everywhere in the world as if it thought everybody owed it the courtesy of hospitality, it has generated hostility instead.

Citizen Buffers

By Truman Twill

The police chief in Columbus, George W. Scholer, thinks it would be a good idea to tape-record interrogation of felony suspects, as proposed by a committee of lawyers in the American Law Institute.

The tape recording would refute the standard allegation by defense attorneys that their client was manhandled by police who did not inform him of his rights. Or if they inform him, the defense attorneys always say, they didn't let him get a lawyer in time to tell him to keep his mouth shut.

The difficulty is to decide where the police are interested in having clients acquitted and making it hard for the police to get a conviction. Police are interested in bringing culprits to justice and having them punished.

The two jobs are incompatible.

In recent years, the lawyers have edged in on the police until it seemed they were saying "You cannot even arrest a wrong-doer and bring him to headquarters without a lawyer being present to make your job tough."

We have become so obsessed with being fair to wrong-doers and giving them every chance to get off scot-free or with minimum punishment that we have come close to making it impossible for the police to do what we pay them to do.

But when they do not do what we pay them to do, we jump on them for dereliction of duty, instead of mentioning that lawyers have something to explain when they tie the police department's hands.

Tape recordings might help, but don't count on it. A tape recording can be doctored. In no time, lawyers would be having them thrown out of court because of the possibility of monkey business.

What about backing up tape-recorded proceedings of police interrogations with sworn statements of reputable and disinterested citizens that they had been present throughout the proceedings and know the recording to be factual, also that they had heard and seen everything that transpired?

How about interposing citizen authority and reputability between these two agencies of public protection, to act as a buffer in their costly, frustrating dispute over where police responsibility stops and lawyer responsibility starts?

This would entail a standby panel of reputable citizens ready to respond whenever called to do a job.

Panel members would have to be of such good standing in the community that their word could not be doubted. They would have to command the respect of the police and the courts. They would have to command the respect of the legal profession, too, to keep them from being challenged on the point of veracity as recklessly as defense lawyers now challenge the police.

The chief of police of Columbus thinks tape recorders would be enough. Maybe they would. But a tape recorder backed up by a reputable citizen would be better.

The Picture Changes For Lindsay

By Raymond Moley

In less than three months the mistakes of New York City's new mayor, John V. Lindsay, have created a storm of opposition which may well doom Nelson Rockfeller's chances for re-election.

This is indeed an amazing turn of events. For when Lindsay was elected mayor last November, Rockefeller's prospects for a third term were more than bright, Democrats were badly divided and it seemed that New York might be leading a great revival of liberal Republicanism in the East.

Flushed with their capture of City Hall, Lindsay's merry men have, with the valor of political amateurs, blundered into one controversy after another.

Lindsay, who had never before occupied a responsible administrative job, set about reorganizing the Police Department. He and his deputy mayor, who had been his campaign manager, plunged City Hall into police affairs.

FOR GOOD HISTORICAL REASONS — which may seem strange to citizens of other cities— the New York police department has for many years under Democratic administration been kept clear of City Hall influence. Former Mayor Wagner's four successive commissioners were men highly respected in the community, and the 27,000-man force was the best in the nation.

Lindsay promised, in response to the demands of Negro and Puerto Rican civil rights leaders, to create a civilian review board to investigate charges of police "brutality." Opposition to this and to other examples of interference from City Hall led to the retirement or dismissal of several of the major police officials, including Commissioner Vincent Broderick. The vacancies were filled by people who would, Lindsay believed, be more amenable to City Hall dictation. If I'm any judge of public opinion, this upheaval has caused bitter regret among thousands of people who voted for Lindsay.

Since Lindsay's settlement with Michael Quill's Transit Workers Union was very expensive, Lindsay proposed bringing all the city's transit systems under one commissioner appointed by the mayor. At the present time, under state law the buses and subways are operated by the Transit Authority composed of three members who are appointed for long terms and who are measurably independent of City Hall. There is also the Triborough Bridge Authority, governed by a board of which Robert Moses is the dominating head.

Presumably Lindsay's purpose in including the Triborough Bridge Authority in his transit proposal was to use its profits to meet the deficits of the bus and subway systems.

THIS AROUSED the powerful opposition of Moses who, in order to protect the Triborough bond-holders, threatens to carry the case to the courts. The Chase Manhattan Bank, trustee for the bond-holders, also threatens litigation. The transit merger needs the approval of the New York Legislature, which at the moment seems to be opposed to Lindsay's plan.

Finally, the mayor has proposed a series of new taxes, which also need the approval of the legislature. Two of the components of this tax package are a city income tax and a tax on stock transfers. The New York Stock Exchange will, it says, respond by moving out of the state.

The political beneficiary of this combination of unpopular actions is Frank D. O'Connor, a Democrat who was elected president of the City Council in November. O'Connor was formerly district attorney of the city's borough of Queens. He is shrewd and extremely personable. He proved his popularity by running far ahead of Lindsay in the November election. His plurality was 427,000; Lindsay's was 125,000.

AS PRESIDENT of the City Council he can institute investigations of Lindsay's tampering with the police and of his tax plans. O'Connor is already regarded as the most promising Democratic candidate for governor. Lindsay has created a situation perfectly suited to further his ambitions.

Gov. Rockefeller is not too popular in the upstate counties, and with O'Connor cutting deeply into the New York City vote it's difficult to see how the governor can win another term.

Thus, the great Lindsay crusade for liberal Republicanism may well lose the state of New York to the Republican party for years to come. And Lindsay's blunders will blast his own ambitions to become an important figure in national politics.

This 'n That

Distilled liquor made illegally in the mountains of Virginia, North Carolina, Kentucky and Tennessee always has been called "moonshine," simply because it was manufactured at night by moonlight to avoid detection by law officers. This word, however, didn't originate in America, since as far back as the 17th century in England the term "moonshine" was applied to illicit brandy that was smuggled in by night from France and Holland.

Although proverbially the bagpipe is considered a Scottish musical instrument, it was introduced into Scotland by the Norsemen. The instrument is of very ancient origin, as representations of it are to be found in old Grecian and Roman sculptures.

The quotation, "Spare the rod and spoil the child," does not, as some people suppose, appear in the Bible. The nearest thing to it in the Bible is the following from the 13th Chapter of Proverbs: "He that spareth the rod hateth his son."

Although for practical purposes 365 days is considered as the time required by the earth to make one revolution around the sun, the actual time is 365 days, six hours, nine minutes and 9.6 seconds.

The ancient Romans at one time passed a law governing the color of women's dresses to be worn at parties and funerals.

Lost Prestige

By David Lawrence

Most Frown On French Move

France has lost more prestige throughout the world by virtually ordering American forces to leave the country than can possibly be regained through its policy of detachment. Not merely in the United States but around the globe, the move is regarded as a step toward the breaking - up of the alliance which has hitherto been the main bulwark in Europe against a Soviet aggression.

David Lawrence

The announcement, moreover, just made that the Soviet Union is ready to conclude a treaty of alliance with France at any time now has raised fears as to the ultimate fate of Western Europe.

While there is inside France a large Communist party, with a substantial political influence in the National Assembly, no French president or premier in 20 years has shown any signs of wishing to get closer to the government in Moscow.

The Soviet ambassador to France, Valerian Zorin, said in a public speech in Paris that the Soviet government looks upon what President de Gaulle has done as indicating that the whole NATO establishment hangs in the balance, and that Moscow would be glad to abolish the Warsaw Pact Organization if NATO is eliminated.

It's plain that Moscow is happy about President de Gaulle's proposals to drive American forces out of France.

THE TALK about abolishing the Warsaw Organization, however, is not realistic, because, while it is possible for the Soviets to go through the motions of winding up the Warsaw Organization in Eastern Europe, a military defense system embracing the Communist - bloc countries will nevertheless continue to form an integral part of the Soviet military front in Eastern Europe.

If President de Gaulle were to conclude a treaty with the Soviet Union, it would arouse considerable suspicion and produce a lot of uneasiness among Western European countries. Already American public opinion is beginning to be reflected in speeches in Congress deploring the De Gaulle policy as an effort to weaken the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., in a speech in the Senate Thursday predicted that "the Atlantic Alliance will endure, no matter what De Gaulle does," and he expressed the hope that "sober second thoughts" will prevail in France. He added:

"Our sorrow is for France, as De Gaulle wrenches her from the company of her friends. There will also be anger at such mischief. It has all the appearance of one attempting to feather his own nest at the expense of others. In reality, France is the loser: as she reneges on her part in the Atlantic Alliance, her own importance as an ally diminishes. She has already lost much in respect and confidence."

GEN. DE GAULLE, in effect, argues that all troops and bases in France should be commanded by Frenchmen and that an integrated NATO force with an American at the top is wrong. If, however, there should be a third world war, airpower — and particularly nuclear weapons — would doubtless be the most important factor.

This means that the United States, which has a complete arsenal of nuclear weapons, naturally must retain command of all the armies allied in defense of Europe and control any potential use of such weapons.

It's conceivable, of course, that Gen. de Gaulle hasn't been thinking in military terms but only of his own nationalistic ambitions and that he may not have really calculated the damage that might ensue by virtually ordering American forces out of France at this time.

Sooner or later the military facts will penetrate the minds of Frenchmen, and they will not long tolerate the insecurity that a demoralized NATO would create for France.

This is why there is an undercurrent of feeling here that eventually the French people themselves will deal with De Gaulle's erratic policies and reaffirm their desire for a continued alliance with the United States and the retention in France of American commanders and forces as long as the Communits threat has not been completely removed.

Daylight Time Must Be Saved

Ever since the end of World War II, Ohio has been a state divided on Daylight Saving Time.

During the war, as a power conservation measure, all of the United States — and all of Ohio — was placed by Congress on Daylight Time. Northeastern Ohio cities liked it and voted, by local option, to keep it. Elsewhere, Ohioans chose to stay on Eastern Standard Time.

A dozen or more proposals for establishing uniform time statewide, either "fast" or "slow," have failed in the Ohio General Assembly.

NOW IT LOOKS as though the issue finally is going to be resolved one way or another. The U. S. House has passed a bill providing that states must have uniform time during the summer of 1967. Senate leaders are predicting ultimate enactment of the measure. The next Ohio General Assembly may have a hot potato on its hands.

The bill provide that the Interstate Commerce Commission must set up Daylight Time for every state, uniformly throughout the state, according to the time zone in which it is located.

This will happen, according to the bill, unless a state legislature votes to keep Standard Time.

In any event, Ohio's time then will be uniform. If the Assembly does nothing, all of Ohio will be on "fast" time during six months in 1967. If the Assembly votes for "slow" time, that will be the rule for all of Ohio. East Liverpool would lose its Daylight Saving.

Most local residents probably hope the Assembly does nothing. They have become so accustomed to Daylight Time they would balk at any prospect of giving it up.

It is too early for any such move to get under way, but it seems likely that legislators outside the Daylight Time belt will attempt to force the issue in the next Assembly. If they do, all of northeastern Ohio will need to combine forces in an all-out effort to persuade a majority of the Assembly to keep Daylight Time and permit it to be established on a statewide basis, as it was during World War II.

Biggest complaint against Daylight Saving elsewhere in Ohio has seemed to come from the farmers who argue that their livestock gets up by the sun, not the clock, and they must do their milking and other chores accordingly.

In Daylight Saving areas, farmers do exactly this. They do their chores at the same time by the sun and an hour later by the clock. If they milk now at 6 a.m., they will milk through the summer at 7 a.m. The cows don't know the difference. Only the clocks are different.

Meanwhile, city and suburban dwellers, who are in the majority, have an opportunity to enjoy the outdoors an hour longer during the outdoor - beckoning weather of summer. They can swim, play golf and tennis and baseball, fish, mow their lawns, tend their gardens and whatnot in healthful outdoor exercise after work.

Some of the major labor unions opposed Daylight Saving at the beginning in the fear that inconvenience their members working on early morning shifts. They long ago dropped this objection, because most of their members appreciate the hour of additional daylight for recreation at the end of the day.

THE FARMERS have become accustomed to the transition in the Daylight Time areas. It shouldn't be hard for farmers in "slow" time localities to do likewise.

Come April 24, East Liverpool and other portions of northeastern Ohio will have Daylight Time again for six months.

But come 1967, there may be a battle about it in the Assembly. Daylight Time enthusiasts will need to work hard for victory.

Up From The Depths

We can look forward to official revelations some years hence of the frantic search for the atomic bomb that fell into the water off the coast of Spain last Jan. 17 and was not found for three months.

Before it was located and recovered procedures started, millions of dollars had been spent, thousands of people had been scared out of their wits, the tourist industry of Spain had sustained a setback, the United States had deservedly been criticized for what seemed to have been a dangerous procedure in refueling B52 bombers over populated areas and a great many officials had aged perceptibly.

Those who know most about atomic bombs aged most. It was all very well to issue hearty reassurances that no danger of exposion or radiation was imminent in the one bomb of the four that fell in the wreckage of the two planes involved in the accident, but the reassurances were not reassuring.

No one could know at the time that all the fail-safe devices had done what they were supposed to do. No one could know what would happen if the one bomb that had not been recovered on land and therefore must have fallen into the ocean could not be found. No one could know what danger was potential in an atomic bomb that had been lost, to all intents and purposes.

It will make a fascinating story when it finally is told. All that has been told so far is a briefed-down synopsis. The bomb has been found and is being recovered. Three months of agonizing fear and uncertainty are over

In A Better Ordered World

The French government is hearing objections from localities that will be economically hurt if President de Gaulle breaks up NATO.

One of the oddities of a world in which everybody bites the hand that feeds it sooner or later is coming to the surface in France.

The ingrates who do the biting always have a change of heart if the hand is withdrawn. They would like to retain eating privileges while asserting biting privileges.

Even the Cubans who forced the United States out of Cuba were overjoyed to have the U:S. base at Guantanamo remain intact because Cubans employed there depended on it for their livelihood.

Among the hardest hit if the United States had to pull out of South Viet Nam would be its enemies, because they have had great success stealing and black-marketing U.S. supplies and at one time were heavily dependent on captured U.S. military equipment to keep the war going.

The economy of South Korea is geared to U.S. spending, as is the economy of every small nation where this country maintains large military operations.

West Germany thrives on the economic stimulation of U.S. dollars. It is an old story with an unhappy ending. Governments that get the benefit of dollars spent to keep the sun from setting on Old Glory ultimately turn sour and demand that the United States pull out and stay out.

In a better ordered world, the United States never would go any place it was not invited to go and never would overstay its welcome. It never would stand accused of intervention. It would insist on popular demand for its presence anywhere outside its own borders and in the absence of popular demand would revert to the isolation that once was its trademark.

Would this mean a return to isolationism? Not at all. If the United States insisted on popular demand as a prerequisite for its presence anywhere outside its own borders, the demand would be forthcoming. By going at its 20th century destiny of showing Old Glory everywhere in the world as if it thought everybody owed it the courtesy of hospitality, it has generated hostility instead.

Citizen Buffers

By Truman Twill

The police chief in Columbus, George W. Scholer, thinks it would be a good idea to tape-record interrogation of felony suspects, as proposed by a committee of lawyers in the American Law Institute.

The tape recording would refute the standard allegation by defense attorneys that their client was manhandled by police who did not inform him of his rights. Or if they inform him, the defense attorneys always say, they didn't let him get a lawyer in time to tell him to keep his mouth shut.

The difficulty is to decide where the police are interested in having clients acquitted and making it hard for the police to get a conviction. Police are interested in bringing culprits to justice and having them punished.

The two jobs are incompatible.

In recent years, the lawyers have edged in on the police until it seemed they were saying "You cannot even arrest a wrong-doer and bring him to headquarters without a lawyer being present to make your job tough."

We have become so obsessed with being fair to wrong-doers and giving them every chance to get off scot-free or with minimum punishment that we have come close to making it impossible for the police to do what we pay them to do.

But when they do not do what we pay them to do, we jump on them for dereliction of duty, instead of mentioning that lawyers have something to explain when they tie the police department's hands.

Tape recordings might help, but don't count on it. A tape recording can be doctored. In no time, lawyers would be having them thrown out of court because of the possibility of monkey business.

What about backing up tape-recorded proceedings of police interrogations with sworn statements of reputable and disinterested citizens that they had been present throughout the proceedings and know the recording to be factual, also that they had heard and seen everything that transpired?

How about interposing citizen authority and reputability between these two agencies of public protection, to act as a buffer in their costly, frustrating dispute over where police responsibility stops and lawyer responsibility starts?

This would entail a standby panel of reputable citizens ready to respond whenever called to do a job.

Panel members would have to be of such good standing in the community that their word could not be doubted. They would have to command the respect of the police and the courts. They would have to command the respect of the legal profession, too, to keep them from being challenged on the point of veracity as recklessly as defense lawyers now challenge the police.

The chief of police of Columbus thinks tape recorders would be enough. Maybe they would. But a tape recorder backed up by a reputable citizen would be better.

The Picture Changes For Lindsay

By Raymond Moley

In less than three months the mistakes of New York City's new mayor, John V. Lindsay, have created a storm of opposition which may well doom Nelson Rockfeller's chances for re-election.

This is indeed an amazing turn of events. For when Lindsay was elected mayor last November, Rockefeller's prospects for a third term were more than bright, Democrats were badly divided and it seemed that New York might be leading a great revival of liberal Republicanism in the East.

Flushed with their capture of City Hall, Lindsay's merry men have, with the valor of political amateurs, blundered into one controversy after another.

Lindsay, who had never before occupied a responsible administrative job, set about reorganizing the Police Department. He and his deputy mayor, who had been his campaign manager, plunged City Hall into police affairs.

FOR GOOD HISTORICAL REASONS — which may seem strange to citizens of other cities— the New York police department has for many years under Democratic administration been kept clear of City Hall influence. Former Mayor Wagner's four successive commissioners were men highly respected in the community, and the 27,000-man force was the best in the nation.

Lindsay promised, in response to the demands of Negro and Puerto Rican civil rights leaders, to create a civilian review board to investigate charges of police "brutality." Opposition to this and to other examples of interference from City Hall led to the retirement or dismissal of several of the major police officials, including Commissioner Vincent Broderick. The vacancies were filled by people who would, Lindsay believed, be more amenable to City Hall dictation. If I'm any judge of public opinion, this upheaval has caused bitter regret among thousands of people who voted for Lindsay.

Since Lindsay's settlement with Michael Quill's Transit Workers Union was very expensive, Lindsay proposed bringing all the city's transit systems under one commissioner appointed by the mayor. At the present time, under state law the buses and subways are operated by the Transit Authority composed of three members who are appointed for long terms and who are measurably independent of City Hall. There is also the Triborough Bridge Authority, governed by a board of which Robert Moses is the dominating head.

Presumably Lindsay's purpose in including the Triborough Bridge Authority in his transit proposal was to use its profits to meet the deficits of the bus and subway systems.

THIS AROUSED the powerful opposition of Moses who, in order to protect the Triborough bond-holders, threatens to carry the case to the courts. The Chase Manhattan Bank, trustee for the bond-holders, also threatens litigation. The transit merger needs the approval of the New York Legislature, which at the moment seems to be opposed to Lindsay's plan.

Finally, the mayor has proposed a series of new taxes, which also need the approval of the legislature. Two of the components of this tax package are a city income tax and a tax on stock transfers. The New York Stock Exchange will, it says, respond by moving out of the state.

The political beneficiary of this combination of unpopular actions is Frank D. O'Connor, a Democrat who was elected president of the City Council in November. O'Connor was formerly district attorney of the city's borough of Queens. He is shrewd and extremely personable. He proved his popularity by running far ahead of Lindsay in the November election. Gov. Rockefeller is not too popular in the upstate counties, and with O'Connor cutting deeply into the New York City vote it's difficult to see how the governor can win another term.

Thus, the great Lindsay crusade for liberal Republicanism may well lose the state of New York to the Republican party for years to come. And Lindsay's blunders will blast his own ambitions to become an important figure in national politics.

THAT ALL WHO PASS MAY KNOW . . .

THE HISTORY of the world is written in Monuments, that mark the final resting place of loved ones — tributes perpetuating fame achieved, a beautiful life, a noble character. Without them, lives of our ancestors would have passed from memory as though they had never been lived. Only in a few years the unmarked grave will lose its identity, become unknown — a sign that your loved ones are forgotten. Have you forgotten someone? Let us help you in your selection of a fitting Memorial from the many beautiful designs on display in our showrooms. We have Monuments to fit any need at a cost consistent with what you feel you can afford. We also carry a complete line of beautifully designed Bronze Markers. If you live beyond a visit, we offer home counsel or transportation. We suggest you make your selection now, for Memorial Day, and avoid the rush. Choose a Graham and Wagner Monument, that will endure and endear through the years ahead.

A MOMENT OF MEDITATION
"But My Preacher Said . . ."

The above comment is commonly heard by those who discuss religion. It seems that some believe that the word of their preacher is enough to justify them in the sight of God. In this article we intend to show the danger in accepting the word of some preacher without looking to God's Word to see if we have been told the truth.

It must be remembered that the Word of God is the final standard of right and wrong in religion. We will be judged by the Words of Christ and not by the words of our favorite preacher. Jno. 12:48.

The Bible abounds with warnings concerning the danger of listening to teachers without checking their words by the Scriptures. Jesus warned that there would be some who would appear in "sheep's clothing" but in reality they were "ravening wolves". Mt. 7:15. This is a clear warning about false teachers. A similar warning is given by Peter concerning the possibility of false teachers among us. 2 Peter 2:1-2.

Since it is evident from the teaching of the Bible that we are in danger of listening to false teachers, how can we be sure that a preacher is telling the truth as it is revealed in the Gospel? The answer is given by John in 1 Jno. 4;1. We must try to test the teachers to see if they are telling the truth. We can take the word of the preacher and then compare it to the Word of God. If it is according to God's Word, it is truth. If it is not according to the Bible, this man is not worthy of our confidence. If his doctrine contradicts the teaching of God, he is wrong and must be rejected.

To some it may seem rather bold that we would suggest questioning the word of a preacher. However, a preacher who is telling the truth would be happy if you would take time to be sure about your salvation. The Apostle Paul commended the people of Berea because they searched the Scriptures daily to see if they were being taught the truth. Acts 17:11. If Paul, an inspired man, was not insulted by people checking on his teaching, why should a preacher today become insulted when we ask for the scripture that teaches what he affirms? I am afraid of any man who is disturbed by people who compare his teaching to the Word of God. He must have something to hide.

Consider just how vital this question is to us. We want to go to Heaven. If we miss Heaven, we miss everything that is of any importance. We cannot afford to take chances with our salvation. In view of the danger of false teachers, we must check the word of any teacher with the Gospel. It will not be enough in Judgment to say we have followed the word of our preacher. If our preacher was wrong, then we would be too. Jesus said that if the blind lead the blind, they both shall fall into the ditch. Mt. 15:14. The false teacher and the one who follows him shall be lost. Be sure of your salvation!

THAT ALL WHO PASS MAY KNOW . . .

THE HISTORY of the world is written in Monuments, that mark the final resting place of loved ones — tributes perpetuating fame achieved, a beautiful life, a noble character. Without them, lives of our ancestors would have passed from memory as though they had never been lived. Only in a few years the unmarked grave will lose its identity, become unknown — a sign that your loved ones are forgotten. Have you forgotten someone? Let us help you in your selection of a fitting Memorial from the many beautiful designs on display in our showrooms. We have Monuments to fit any need at a cost consistent with what you feel you can afford. We also carry a complete line of beautifully designed Bronze Markers. If you live beyond a visit, we offer home counsel or transportation. We suggest you make your selection now, for Memorial Day, and avoid the rush. A MOMENT OF MEDITATION

"But My Preacher Said . . ."

The above comment is commonly heard by those who discuss religion. It seems that some believe that the word of their preacher is enough to justify them in the sight of God. In this article we intend to show the danger in accepting the word of some preacher without looking to God's Word to see if we have been told the truth.

It must be remembered that the Word of God is the final standard of right and wrong in religion. We will be judged by the Words of Christ and not by the words of our favorite preacher. Jno. 12:48.

The Bible abounds with warnings concerning the danger of listening to teachers without checking their words by the Scriptures. Jesus warned that there would be some who would appear in "sheep's clothing" but in reality they were "ravening wolves". Mt. 7:15. This is a clear warning about false teachers. A similar warning is given by Peter concerning the possibility of false teachers among us. 2 Peter 2:1-2.

Since it is evident from the teaching of the Bible that we are in danger of listening to false teachers, how can we be sure that a preacher is telling the truth as it is revealed in the Gospel? The answer is given by John in 1 Jno. 4:1. We must try to test the teachers to see if they are telling the truth. We can take the word of the preacher and then compare it to the Word of God. If it is according to God's Word, it is truth. If it is not according to the Bible, this man is not worthy of our confidence. If his doctrine contradicts the teaching of God, he is wrong and must be rejected.

To some it may seem rather bold that we would suggest questioning the word of a preacher. However, a preacher who is telling the truth would be happy if you would take time to be sure about your salvation. The Apostle Paul commended the people of Berea because they searched the Scriptures daily to see if they were being taught the truth. Acts 17:11. If Paul, an inspired man, was not insulted by people checking on his teaching, why should a preacher today become insulted when we ask for the scripture that teaches what he affirms? I am afraid of any man who is disturbed by people who compare his teaching to the Word of God. He must have something to hide.

Consider just how vital this question is to us. We want to go to Heaven. If we miss Heaven, we miss everything that is of any importance. We cannot afford to take chances with our salvation. In view of the danger of false teachers, we must check the word of any teacher with the Gospel. It will not be enough in Judgment to say we have followed the word of our preacher. If our preacher was wrong, then we would be too. Jesus said that if the blind lead the blind, they both shall fall into the ditch. Mt. 15:14. The false teacher and the one who follows him shall be lost.

Be sure of your salvation!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Trophies Of The Hunt

By PAUL HUTCHMAN

THE thrills and dangers of big game hunting—favorite hobby of Arthur A. Wells, pottery executive—are kept a part of the everyday life of the Newell Heights resident through his collection of trophies.

He entertained a group of area men Saturday and displayed what he considered his best trophies in the large living room and reception hall of the home overlooking the Ohio River.

The specimens were taken during the most recent trip of Wells, who was accompanied by Dr. J. Kenneth Doutt of Pittsburgh, Curator of Mammalogy, Carnegie Museum.

Dr. Doutt did not actively participate in the shooting phase of the hunting operations, but was an interested spectator, alert to possible additions to the large and varied collection at the museum.

THE PAIR FLEW to Africa in the late fall of 1964 to Johannesburg, South Africa, from where they traveled to Victoria Falls in Rhodesia, and then to the hunting site in southeastern Angola, accessible only by bush plane.

They set up camp and brought in additional supplies for the safari, which, when fully organized, included a Portuguese acquaintance, a driver, tracker and cook. They found the English Land Rover best suited for reconnoitering the terrain.

The party "lived off the fat of the land," shooting game for subsistence and eating native foods as well. They spent about a month in the camping and hunting area, experiencing no unusual difficulties, bad weather or attacks from animals.

"The only mishap," Dr. Doutt recalled, "was a flat tire resulting from a mauling by a lion."

Of all the trophies, Wells values most highly his Cape Buffalo head and horns measuring 40 inches in length, qualifying the catch as a record animal to be listed in Roland Ward's book released each few years. Wells is also fond of his Greater Kudu, whose 56-inch horns fell short of the list by only one-half inch.

Other unusual animals shot by Wells were sitatunga and sable antelopes, the former a swamp dweller which seldom leaves his habitat. Nature has provided the sitatunga with a specially padded paw for navigating the boggy lands, as evidenced by one of Wells' exhibits.

WELLS ALSO HAD on display about 15 varieties of smaller antelope skins and skulls prepared by Roland Ward for the Carnegie Museum, as well as the head, horns and skin of a red letchwe, and the skulls and horns of wildebeest, zebras, reedbucks and a wart hog.

These specimens, Wells explained, will be studied by Pittsburgh University and Carnegie Tech graduate students attending mammalogy classes at the museum. Some of them may also be used in the public exhibit division of the museum, he added.

As he discussed the various trophies, Wells swung a wildebeest tail, which he said found popular use in Africa as a fly swatter. One animal which should not be shot, he warned, is the Nile letchwe, which is considered sacred by the natives.

His exhibits are not limited to the new arrivals. Throughout his home are additional trophies obtained on previous trips to Africa. In the basement den are ivory elephant tusks, one of which measures nine feet in length.

THE TUSKS ARE placed in an appropriate setting, with a zebra rug covering the center of the den floor and a leopard skin an area alongside one wall. Adorning one corner is a stand constructed on an elephant's foot base, on top of which is a hatted buffalo skull seemingly surveying the remnants of its past environment.

Some of these trophies were taken by Wells on his first trip to Africa when he was joined by his wife. He has taken two other trips, making a total of four to the former Dark Continent, little about which was known until the 19th Century.

Other trophies from previous trips have been placed on walls bordering the staircase. These range from rhinoceros and antelope horns to large exhibits similar to his recent acquisitions.

Arthur Wells of Newell Heights recalls his shooting this Greater Kudu whose spiral horns measure 56 inches long.

Dr. J. Kenneth Doutt of the Carnegie Museum at Pittsburgh and Wells examine one of the specimens which will be taken to the museum.

The stairwell at Wells' home is decorated with specimens taken on previous trips to Africa, including the twin horns of à rhinoceros in the center.

Another prime specimen in the collection is the head of a 1,500-pound eland, center, largest member of the antelope family, which Wells downed with a .450-caliber express rifle.

Mounted in a prominent location in Wells' livingroom are, left, a sable antelope, and right, a sitatunga antelope. In the center of the display is the trophy Wells values most — a Cape Buffalo with horns measuring 40 inches.

Mementoes such as these brightly-colored skins of former jungle beasts and enormous elephant tusks keep alive the memory of adventures in the wild terrain of southeastern Angola.

Outdoor Notes

By HARRY STEWART
Review Staff Member

ABOUT THIS time of year fishermen and other persons visiting some of the more than 35,000 ponds and lakes in Ohio observe large numbers of dead fish along the banks and become alarmed.

This mortality is the result of a phenomenon called "winterkill." It usually is the result of suffocation.

Wildlife biologists say that when a thick layer of ice forms on a lake or pond, oxygen absorption by the water from the air is stopped. Impounded water obtains oxygen from the air or from the photosynthetic action of plants.

When the ice forms and stops the water from absorbing oxygen from the air, it usually cuts off

If there is a dense growth of aquatic plants in the water, what oxygen is left when the ice forms is often used up by the decaying of organic materials.

MANY ATTEMPTS by various methods have been used to remove snow from bodies of water to prevent winter fish kill. Snow removal and the application of lamp black appear to be the most practical methods, experts say.

If a severe winterkill occurs, restocking sometimes is necessary.

The biggest winterkill reported this year was at Indian Lake. Estimates, based on a count made by wildlife officers, set the loss at 1,360 largemouth bass, 4,000 bluegills, 560 crappies, 670 bullheads and less than 100 of various other species.

The water at the lake was drawn down and the fish killed were trapped in potholes and then frozen in the ice. The state has announced that 500,000 walleyes and 50,000 largemouth bass will be stocked in Indian Lake this spring.

The state also plans to stock all of Ohio's waters in 1966.

NATIONAL AND OHIO Wildlife Week will be observed Sunday through next Saturday.

In conjunction with the observance, a special open house and tour will be held Sunday from 1 to 5 p.m. at the fish hatchery at Akron, located at 912 Portage Lake Dr.

Visitors will tour the facilities and view the chain pickerel hatching operations, watch a test net operation on an adjacent lake and hear talks by division fish, game and law technicians.

If you have time, visit the hatchery and take along your family. It is very interesting and educational.

ANOTHER REMINDER — a 1966 fishing license is needed now in Ohio. The licenses became effective March 1 and cost $2.25.

A fishing license is required for all persons fishing or taking frogs and turtles in state waters. You do not need a license to fish in a private pond, if you are under 18, on an annual leave from the Armed Forces or if you receive an old age pension from the Ohio Division of Aid For the Aged. The latter does not include those receiving social security or other pensions.

Any resident 70 or older may apply for a permanent fishing license. Information can be obtained at any fishing license outlet.

ONE MORE REMINDER. Work continues daily on the Highlandtown Lake along Route 39. Fish management workers have installed "fish attractors" which will concentrate the quarry.

Check now, before the water is impounded, so you won't have to search later for the best places to fish. An important factor to a successful fishing trip is knowing the haunts of the fish.

With the break in the weather, various forms of wildlife have become more active at night. The evidence of this is the number of animals seen killed on the highways.

Wildlife officials say that the drivers can help prevent some of these kills by following a simple procedure.

At night when an animal is spotted in your headlights, flash them from bright to dim several times. Animals seem to become paralyzed when a bright light is shining on them, and the flashing seems to help break the spell.

Try it. It could save some game and it might prevent some damage to your car. You may think that hitting some small animal couldn't hurt your car, but it could cause you to have a wreck. Also, the small bones in this type of game can puncture a tire.

SUCKER FISHING should be getting good. Bass should start hitting soon. Some fishermen already have had success.

A friend of mine went out this week and caught three small bass. His face also got sunburned. With these two signs, who can deny spring is just about here.

Now is a good time to catch night crawlers and store them for summer. I caught 300 or 400 a week ago. I use a commercial bedding to put them in. After sorting them and putting them in boxes, I stored them in an old refrigerator my father has in his basement just for this purpose.

If you have the room, an old refrigerator is a good investment for a fisherman. You can keep all types of live bait much better. And, you never have to listen to your wife scream about those "messy things in with the food."

Pennsylvania has started its trout stocking. Trout season opens there April 16 at 5 a. m.

No fishing is allowed for warm water game species in Pennsylvania until May 7. Bass season will remain closed until June 18.

Miss Logue (13) Eyes 'Vogue'

Sophistication plus is Mary Kay Logue in this professional modeling pose.

The cool poise and casual elegance of a talented professional model are already a part of the appearance and personality of a 13-year former Newell girl considering a career in the field.

Mary Kay Logue of Glendale, Calif., will be in a "March Week" style event in Bullock's Department Store in Los Angeles Wednesday through Friday.

Daughter of Lou Logue of 309 Washington St. and residing with her mother, the former Margaret Chulock of Toronto, Mary Kay is only a seventh grader in Glendale.

Through friends of the family in Hollywood, she became involved in modeling clothes and posing for photographs in November, and now has a regular model's book and is scheduled for various clothes and picture assignments.

Her mother this week reported it appears the 5-foot-4 brunette with hazel eyes will be used chiefly for photographic work.

Her assignments and training are handled by a professional agency and she is gaining valuable experience in line with what she and her parents hope will be her career.

She is also counting on a visit with her father and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Logue of Newell, this summer.

You And The Law

Tim and Lois were watching a situation comedy on television. The program concerned a man and his wife who were eating in a restaurant.

When the waiter presented the bill, the man discovered he had forgotten to bring his wallet. The wife had no money in her pocketbook. The manager escorted the husband to the kitchen and made him wash dishes while the wife went home to get some money.

Tim laughed, but Lois was worried. "That could happen to anybody," she said. "Can a restaurant really force a person to work off the price of his meal?"

THE ANSWER is emphatically "no." This old joke has circulated so long that some people have come to believe it. No person can enslave another and force him to work off his debt. Furthermore, no person can hold another prisoner as security for a debt.

In fact, the restaurant manager's act of forcibly compelling the husband to stay there and wash dishes, could make the restaurant liable for damages.

The restaurant is protected in another way under Ohio law. There is a statute which makes it a crime to defraud an innkeeper. If someone orders a meal in a restaurant or rents a hotel room, knowing he has no money or doesn't intend to pay, he is guilty of the crime. For such action, the person could be liable to a fine of $200 and/or a jail sentence of three months, or he could be sent to prison for from one to five years.

THE LAW applies to obtaining the services by "false pretense," "false or fictitious show of baggage," leaving without offering to pay, etc.

In the TV show situation, the proper legal course for the manager was simple: Call the police if he did not believe the man "left his wallet in his other trousers." In no circumstances, however, would the restaurant have any right to compel the husband to work in the kitchen. If the wallet was truly left at home no crime was committed because there was no intent to defraud.

In Ohio, copies of the statute concerning defrauding the innkeeper are to be posted in numerous conspicuous places in the establishment. However, failure to post these notices is not a defense for prosecution under the law. In other words, just because you didn't see it doesn't mean you can do it.

Stamps In The News

To honor the 150th anniversary of Indiana's admission to the Union, a new 5-cent commemorative stamp will be issued April 16 at Corydon, Ind., the state's first capital.

The design of the new stamp is based on the commemorative seal and is by Indianapolis artist Paul Wehr who received $1,000 for the best of

The vertical stamp is blue, yellow and brown. In the center is a map of the state into which is inset a torch and a cluster of 19 stars. Indiana was the 19th state to enter the union. Above the map is a circle surrounded by the inscription "Sesquicentennial 1816-1966." Bisecting the circle is the word "Indiana" above which is an outline of the old capitol building at Corydon.

Collectors desiring first-day cancellations may send addressed envelopes, together with remittance to cover the cost of the stamps to be affixed, to the Postmaster, Corydon, Ind. 47112. The envelope to the Postmaster should be endorsed "First-Day Covers 5c Indiana Statehood Stamp." Requests must be postmarked no later than April 16.

ISRAEL WILL add 10 stamps to its cities and towns series, reports the Israel Philatelic Agency in America. The honored places are Kiryat Shemona, Petah Tiqwa, Nazareth, Beer Sheva, Bet Shean, Tiberias, Zefat, Roshon le Ziyyon and Jerusalem. Next month the last in the series will be used. It will be the highest value, 3 pounds, and will carry the emblem of Haifa.

A TWO-COLOR cachet of Birr Castle, County Offaly, Ireland, will be sponsored for stamp collectors on March 17 to honor St. Patrick's Day.

The covers will be mailed in Ireland with an attractive Irish commemorative stamp, postmarked BIRR, where the castle is situated. A card in the cover will have a brief summary about the castle. This is the 15 cachet of the historical Irish castle series to be issued.

1st Fatal Second

Stages Of Destruction Traced

How does death come to a driver whose speeding auto smashes into a tree, bridge abutment, another vehicle?

In what way does impact buckle, twist and shear metal, cut, tear and crush the human body?

Safety experts, analyzing reports of hundreds of such fatal mishaps, have come up with a description of the chronology of destruction in the first fatal second when a car going 55 miles an hour hits a solid object.

IN THE FIRST tenth of a second, the front bumper and grill collapse.

The second tenth finds the hood crumpling, rising and striking the windshield as the spinning rear wheels lift from the ground. Simultaneously, fenders begin wrapping themselves around the solid object and although the car's frame has been halted, the driver's car is still going 55 miles per hour.

Instinct causes the driver to stiffen his legs against the crash and they snap at the knee joint.

During the third tenth of the second, the steering wheel starts to disintegrate and the steering column aims for the driver's chest.

The fourth tenth of the second finds two feet of the car's front end wrecked while the rear end still moves at 35 miles per hour and the driver's body is still traveling at 55 miles per hour.

In the fifth tenth the driver is impaled on the steering column and blood rushes to his lungs.

THE SIXTH finds the impact built up to the extent that feet are ripped out of tightly laced shoes. The brake pedal snaps off. The car frame buckles in the middle and the driver's head bangs into the windshield as the rear wheels, still spinning, fall back to earth.

In the seventh tenth hinges rip loose, doors open and the seat breaks free, striking the driver from behind.

But he doesn't feel it, because he is already dead, and the last three tenths of a second mean nothing to him.

Do you question the value of seat belts?

Outdoor Notes

By HARRY STEWART
Review Staff Member

ABOUT THIS time of year fishermen and other persons visiting some of the more than 35,000 ponds and lakes in Ohio observe large numbers of dead fish along the banks and become alarmed.

This mortality is the result of a phenomenon called "winterkill." It usually is the result of suffocation.

Wildlife biologists say that when a thick layer of ice forms on a lake or pond, oxygen absorption by the water from the air is stopped. Impounded water obtains oxygen from the air or from the photosynthetic action of plants.

When the ice forms and stops the water from absorbing oxygen from the air, it usually cuts off

If there is a dense growth of aquatic plants in the water, what oxygen is left when the ice forms is often used up by the decaying of organic materials.

MANY ATTEMPTS by various methods have been used to remove snow from bodies of water to prevent winter fish kill. Snow removal and the application of lamp black appear to be the most practical methods, experts say.

If a severe winterkill occurs, restocking sometimes is necessary.

The biggest winterkill reported this year was at Indian Lake. Estimates, based on a count made by wildlife officers, set the loss at 1,360 largemouth bass, 4,000 bluegills, 560 crappies, 670 bullheads and less than 100 of various other species.

The water at the lake was drawn down and the fish killed were trapped in potholes and then frozen in the ice. The state has announced that 500,000 walleyes and 50,000 largemouth bass will be stocked in Indian Lake this spring.

The state also plans to stock all of Ohio's waters in 1966.

NATIONAL AND OHIO Wildlife Week will be observed Sunday through next Saturday.

In conjunction with the observance, a special open house and tour will be held Sunday from 1 to 5 p.m. at the fish hatchery at Akron, located at 912 Portage Lake Dr.

Visitors will tour the facilities and view the chain pickerel hatching operations, watch a test net operation on an adjacent lake and hear talks by division fish, game and law technicians.

If you have time, visit the hatchery and take along your family. It is very interesting and educational.

ANOTHER REMINDER — a 1966 fishing license is needed now in Ohio. The licenses became effective March 1 and cost $2.25.

A fishing license is required for all persons fishing or taking frogs and turtles in state waters. You do not need a license to fish in a private pond, if you are under 18, on an annual leave from the Armed Forces or if you receive an old age pension from the Ohio Division of Aid For the Aged. The latter does not include those receiving social security or other pensions.

Any resident 70 or older may apply for a permanent fishing license. Information can be obtained at any fishing license outlet.

ONE MORE REMINDER. Work continues daily on the Highlandtown Lake along Route 39. Fish management workers have installed "fish attractors" which will concentrate the quarry.

Check now, before the water is impounded, so you won't have to search later for the best places to fish. An important factor to a successful fishing trip is knowing the haunts of the fish.

With the break in the weather, various forms of wildlife have become more active at night. The evidence of this is the number of animals seen killed on the highways.

Wildlife officials say that the drivers can help prevent some of these kills by following a simple procedure.

At night when an animal is spotted in your headlights, flash them from bright to dim several times. Animals seem to become paralyzed when a bright light is shining on them, and the flashing seems to help break the spell.

Try it. It could save some game and it might prevent some damage to your car. You may think that hitting some small animal couldn't hurt your car, but it could cause you to have a wreck. Also, the small bones in this type of game can puncture a tire.

SUCKER FISHING should be getting good. Bass should start hitting soon. Some fishermen already have had success.

A friend of mine went out this week and caught three small bass. His face also got sunburned. With these two signs, who can deny spring is just about here.

Now is a good time to catch night crawlers and store them for summer. I caught 300 or 400 a week ago. I use a commercial bedding to put them in. After sorting them and putting them in boxes, I stored them in an old refrigerator my father has in his basement just for this purpose.

If you have the room, an old refrigerator is a good investment for a fisherman. You can keep all types of live bait much better. And, you never have to listen to your wife scream about those "messy things in with the food."

Pennsylvania has started its trout stocking. Trout season opens there April 16 at 5 a. m.

No fishing is allowed for warm water game species in Pennsylvania until May 7. Bass season will remain closed until June 18.

Attack On Rabbi Leads To Charge Against Five

WICKLIFFE, Ohio (AP)—An attack on a rabbi at the Telshe Yeshiva, a rabbinical college here, has led to trespassing charges being filed against five young men.

Police Sgt. Andrew Zambory said no one was charged with the attack on Rabbi Calman Fishman, a teacher at the college, because it was not determined who struck him.

Four juveniles, ages 16 and 17, were remanded to Lake County Juvenile Court on delinquency charges stemming from the attack Thursday night.

Police said Rabbi Fishman, 31, was struck on the back of the head, apparently by a youth in a group that invaded the campus screaming and shouting obscenities. He did not require hospital treatment.

Charged with trespassing were: Thomas Zupanicic, 18, of Cleveland; Kenneth Lorenzo, 19, of Eastlake; John Rabatin, 19, 19, of Wickliffe; Robert Zerby, 18, of Euclid, and Daniel Jantonio, 30, of Willowick.

They were released on $25 bond each pending a hearing next Friday in Willowick Municipal Court.

The nine young men were arrested by police who were watching the campus because of a shouting disturbance there Wednesday night.

Patrolman Albert Strukel said some of the youths arrested told police they were retaliating to a stone throwing attack on them. They claimed their car was peppered with stones as they drove past the campus, Strukel said.

Normal Function Due In Water Main Break

WAYNESBORO, Ohio (AP)—Normal water operations will not be in effect here until Monday, but some service has been restored, Mayor Wayne Leatherberry said Friday night. This community of 1,500 population was left in a state of emergency Thursday when a water main broke and completely drained the 120,000-gallon reservoir.

Temporary repairs were made Friday, but pumps used to force water directly into the water mains were unable to build sufficient pressure to refill the reservoir.

Kentucky Picked To Win NCAA Cage Crown Tonight

Noses Out Duke, 83-79; Texas Western Tops Utah 85-To-78

By GORDON BEARD
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) — The top-ranked Kentucky Wildcats will be favored to win their fifth national collegiate basketball championship tonight despite Coach Adolph Rupp's dour observations and dire predictions.

"They look like they'll be rough to get along with," Rupp said after watching brawny Texas Western whip Utah 85-78 Friday night and move into the NCAA tourney final for the first time in history. "We can't jump like them."

But Rupp's runts outrebounded taller Duke, as they had done to other bigger teams during the season, and edged the second-ranked Blue Devils 83-79 in the opener of the semifinal doubleheader witnessed by 14,253 fans.

Texas Western, the nation's No. 3 team in the final Associated Press poll, is even bigger and rougher than Duke. But that may be the downfall of the Miners against a team with the finesse and discipline of Kentucky. Each of the finalists takes a 27-1 record into the championship game.

The Miners were charged with 27 fouls against Utah, with 6-7 David Lattin and 6-5 Harry Flournoy fouling out.

Kentucky blew a 59-52 second half lead as Duke rallied behind Jack Marin to tie the score 69-69 with 4:48 to play. But fevered Larry Conley scored four clutch points in the stretch and the Wildcats capitalized on a muffed layup by Duke's Mike Lewis.

Conley, who had a temperature of 102 degrees Thursday night, was rested periodically throughout the contest. But he sank two free throws in a bonus situation to put Kentucky ahead 73-71 and then drove the length of the court for a basket to make it 79-73 with less than a minute remaining.

Duke had a chance to tie the score after Conley's foul shots, but Lewis missed an easy layup under the basket. All-America Louie Dampier grabbed the rebound and fed Pat Riley on a fast-break basket which Coach Vic Bubas of Duke called the turning point of the game.

Texas Western was in foul trouble by halftime, with three fouls charged against four of its players. But with their tall men on the bench, the Miners got plenty of scoring from their little guards. Orsten Artis led the Midwest regional champs with 22 points from his backcourt position and Bobby Joe Hill had 18 while directing the attack.

Jerry Chambers scored 38 points for Utah, which was playing without George Fisher, who broke a leg late in the season.

Astros 'Way Up There' On 6 Wins In 8 Starts

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Houston tries out the Astrodome's synthetic grass tonight while the rest of the National League wonders whether freshman manager Grady Hatton is using make believe ball players.

The Astros, never higher than eighth place in four seasons, won their sixth exhibition game in eight starts Friday, beating Kansas City 6-3. Tonight they open a two-game series against the Los Angeles Dodgers in the Astrodome, playing on an infield ringed by a chemical surfaced called, appropriately enough, Astrosurf.

The Dodgers, meanwhile, still playing without Los Angeles' latest movie stars, Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale, continued to lose. Baltimore ripped the world champions 9-2, giving LA six Grapefruit losses in as many starts.

In other games Friday, Cleveland ended San Francisco's six-game winning streak, beating the Giants 6-2, while the Chicago White Sox blanked Washington 5-0 and Atlanta shut out the New York Yankees 7-0. The New York Mets shaded St. Louis 8-7, Detroit battered Philadelphia 16-2, Boston edged Cincinnati 8-7 and California whipped the Chicago Cubs 10-1.

Real grass never quite made it inside Houston's dome so the Astros are experimenting with the artificial turf. The infield and foul areas will be covered with it tonight and if the synthetic grass works out, the entire outfield will be covered with it by mid-season.

By then Hatton could have the Astros in first place if their spring play is any indicator. Houston made the most of four Kansas City errors for five unearned runs Friday and ended the Athletics' five-game winning streak.

Rookie Chuck Harrison rifled a two-run homer for Houston and Dave Giusti hurled four innings, permitting only one scratch hit.

Boog Powell smashed a three-run homer, his fourth of the spring, as Baltimore won its sixth game in seven starts. Four Dodger pitchers, including World Series winner Claude Osteen, allowed 11 Oriole hits.

Cleveland tore into San Francisco's Bob Bolin in the fifth inning after the Giant starter had allowed just two hits over the first four. Six hits, including a triple by Larry Brown and a double by Duke Sims, produced five Indian runs and erased a 2-0 San Francisco lead.

Joe Horlen worked four hitless innings as the White Sox whipped Washington. Shortstop Ed Brinkman's error led to a five-run seventh inning for Chicago with Ed Stroud's two-run single the key hit.

The Braves battered four Yankee pitchers, including 20-game winner Mel Stottlemyre, for 11 hits. Billy Cowan homered for the winners and Tony Cloninger, Hank Fisher and rookie Jim Britton combined for the two-hitter.

Rookie outfielder Cleon Jones whacked four hits and Jim Hickman hammered his third homer of the spring as the Mets flexed their muscles in a 17-hit barrage against St. Louis. Ex-Met Charlie Smith homered for the Cardinals.

Mickey Lolich hurled six strong innings and rookie outfielder Wayne Redmond walloped a grand slam homer as Detroit rolled over the Phillies. Dick McAuliffe and Jerry Lumpe drove in three runs apiece for the Tigers, with McAuliffe also hitting a home run.

Rookie George Scott's pinch double keyed Boston's victory over Cincinnati. Scott's hit scored Joe Foy in the eighth inning and then George Smith delivered Scott with his second single.

Joe Adcock ripped a long home run in his first trip to the plate this spring and California went on to defeat the Cubs. It was the third straight victory for the Angels over Chicago.

Dickinson's 137 Leads In Citrus Open

By DUKE FERGUSON

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Gardner Dickinson has that lean and hungry look—hungry for the $21,000 first prize money in the $110,000 Florida Citrus Open golf tournament.

And if the slim, 130-pound player from Dothan, Ala., keeps playing the consistent golf he has the past two rounds, he may enrich his bank account considerably.

Dickinson, who has had his ups and downs on the tournament trial, took the lead Friday after the second round with 34-34—68 for a 36-hole total of 137, five under par.

Though Dickinson played good golf, it was the disintegration of Sam Snead's game that gave him a one stroke lead over the field.

Snead went into the second round leading with a five-under par 66, two strokes ahead of the nearest competitor, but blew it on the back nine, where he carded five bogeys. His 76 left him at even par for the two rounds with 142.

Dickinson's putting helped him into the lead going into today's third round, cut to 77 players out of a field of more than 140.

One stroke behind Dickinson are Dean Refram and Joe Campbell, with 36-hole totals of 138.

Two strokes off the lead are John Schlee, R. H. Sikes, and Bill Maxwell, all at 139. Dick Lythle, Tommy Bolt and Gay Brewer Jr., are tied at 140.

The Big Three of golf, Gary Player, Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus, have had poor showings during the first two rounds.

Player, competing in his first U.S. tournament of the season, missed the 147 cut, carding a 36-hole total of 150, and packed his bags. Nicklaus had rounds of 70-73 to bunch with six others at 143. Palmer, who was back at 145 with rounds of 75-70.

Bradley's new head basketball coach, Joe Stowell had a nine - year record of 120 won, 15 lost as a freshman coach at Bradley.

Moundsville And Dunbar To Clash For W. Va. Title

HUNTINGTON (AP) — Now they know it's so, Joe.

Moundsville Coach Joe Pelaez was complaining this week that his basketball team and its star, Bob Hummell, had been underrated this season.

Moundsville and Hummell made believers out of 5,000 fans and the Richwood team Friday night when they cut down the Lumberjacks, 77-72, in the Class AAA West Virginia High School Tournament.

The 6-foot-2 Hummell scored 45 points — four short of the tournament record — and grabbed 18 rebounds.

Said Hummell, "I would have pressed more but I thought the record was 41."

Said Richwood Coach Joe Andrick, "that boy Hummell, what more can you say. He was it and that was the story."

So Moundsville, which came into the tournament with a 17-6 record — poorest of the four Class AAA teams — now faces Dunbar tonight for the championship.

Dunbar moved away in the fourth quarter on the shooting of Jim Woodall to demolish defending champion Beckley, 76-57. Woodall got nine of his game-high 27 points in Dunbar's fourth quarter spurt.

Dunbar brought a 20-2 record into the tournament.

Huntington Vinson and Mullens who won their semifinal games Thursday night, were to meet this afternoon for the Class AA championship.

Piedmont was to meet Williamson Liberty in the second afternoon game for the Class A title.

Piedmont, led by John Niland and Reginald Fisher, came from nine points behind to beat Rainelle, 49-45, and Liberty whipped Ssitersville, 69-56, in Friday's semifinals.

Niland was Piedmont's top scorer with 22 points, but it was Fisher who led a fourth - period surge. He got nine of his 15 points in the last eight minutes.

Liberty, led by James Hairston with 20 points, had little difficulty, although Sistersville pulled to within four points in the last quarter. Then Sistersville's scoring ace, Bob Kelly, fouled out and all comeback hopes faded. Kelly scored 20 points.

Lakers, Bullets Notch NBA Wins

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The St. Louis Hawks, fighting for a playoff berth in the National Basketball Association Western Division, dropped a 132-120 decision Friday night to the Los Angeles Lakers.

In Friday's only other game, Baltimore clinched second place in the West by whipping Cincinnati 125-105 as Bailey Howell, Don Ohl and Jim Barnes combined for 72 points. The Bullets, with one game remaining, lead St. Louis by three.

The loss to LA cut the Hawks' third-place lead to one-half game over San Francisco, but Guerin was thinking positively.

St. Louis has three games remaining — tonight at home against Detroit, Sunday afternoon at Detroit and Tuesday night in New York.

San Francisco has just two to play — both against Los Angeles. Tonight the Warriors enjoy the home-court advantage, and Sunday night the California rivals close out the regular season here.

Violets Cast As Cinderella Team In Play

NEW YORK (AP) —Lou Rossini took his New York University basketball team into today's National Invitation Tournament championship match against Brigham Young with the air of a man who had nothing to lose.

The Violets weren't expected to make it into the tournament at all, and were one of the longest shots in the field to advance to the finals.

"I'm always confident," said Rossini Thursday night after his Violets had battled from behind after suffering through an eight minute scoring drought and eliminated Villanova 69-63. BYU made it to the finals by whipping Army 66-60.

NYU got into the tourney only by sheer tenacity, beating first Manhattan and then St. John's—both NIT invitees. The tournament committee gave the Violets the next-to-the-last bid in the 14-team field.

Both Rossini and BYU Coach Stan Watts agreed that NYU's Cinderella role might play in the Violets' favor today.

"Tournaments are funny, said Watts. "A team gets a hot hand and starts winning. NYU's got the emotional setup...the feel of a winning tournament team. They felt they were lucky to get into the tourney, so they're going to prove something."

"I'm optimistic," said Rossini. "My kids never have given up. They knocked off St. John's to get into the tournament and they've battled every minute to get to the final."

The Violets counted on the playmaking and shooting of Mal Graham and hoped that 6-5 Charlie Silen and 6-5 Stan McKenzie could handle the Cougars off the boards.

Villanova and Army were to meet in the consolation game for third place.

Birdie's Talk To Tribe Pays With 6-2 Win

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — "I wanted to get some ideas across to them," said Manager Birdie Tebbetts, explaining his lecture to the Cleveland Indians prior to their exhibition game with the San Francisco Giants Friday.

Apparently he was successful.

The Indians beat the Giants, 6-2, to end their losing streak at three games and half the San Francisco winning streak at six games.

Tebbetts said he told the Indians "that it takes a certain amount of extra dedication — sacrifices a championship-type club has to make—to do the things I say, and it can do.

"I think this club will make those sacrifices, and that's what we visited about this morning," the manager continued.

Following the game, Tebbetts said he was "pleased with many things . . . mainly that we were alert out there."

He said he also was pleased with the hitting (the Indians got 10 hits) and the pitching.

The big blows were Duke Sims' double and a triple by Larry Brown.

Don McMahon, who held the Giants to one hit in the two innings he worked, gained the victory.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Unbeaten Lima Shawnee leads eight Ohio Class AA high School basketball teams into regional finals tonight pointing toward the state tournament next weekend in Columbus.

The No. 2 ranked Shawnee Indians, the only AA club with a perfect record, chalked up up their 24ts straight success Friday night by ousting seventh-rated Elyria, 59-54.

Lima, bidding for a second straight trip to St. John Arena, tangles with fifth-ranked Toledo Libbey tonight in the Bowling Green regional after Libbey (23-1) bounced Cleveland Adams 67-59.

Middletown (20-4) nipped Springfield South 77-76 and No. 3 ranked Dayton Chaminade (23-1) sidelined Cincinnati Elder 72-60 in the only other AA action.

In one of the top games Friday, Middletown, a seven-time state champion, held off South's late bid and overcame a 38-point performance by the loser's Jody Finney.

Finney netted 12 points in one five-minute spurt in the final period but it wasn't enough. Ken Cohen paced the Middies with 26 and 21 points, respectively.

Chaminade pulled away in final period on a rash of free throws and outscored Elder 18-4 from the charity line. Dayton's Jim Gottschall tallied 23 and twin-brother Jerry scored 22 while teammate Gary Arthur chipped in with 21.

In Class A, Rossford had the biggest scare after building a 43-28 halftime advantage and a 22-point margin in the third quarter.

All-Ohio Kerry Myers rammed in 31 points in leading Celina's comeback bid that came within two points. Jim Penix netted 22 and Bill Gladieux 20 for the victors, who had won all their games this season by 11 points or more.

Rookie outfielder Cleon Jones whacked four hits and Jim Hickman hammered his third homer of the spring as the Mets flexed their muscles in a 17-hit barrage against St. Louis. Ex-Met Charlie Smith homered for the Cardinals.

Mickey Lolich hurled six strong innings and rookie outfielder Wayne Redmond walloped a grand slam homer as Detroit rolled over the Phillies. Dick McAuliffe and Jerry Lumpe drove in three runs apiece for the Tigers, with McAuliffe also hitting a home run.

Rookie George Scott's pinch double keyed Boston's victory over Cincinnati. Scott's hit scored Joe Foy in the eighth inning and then George Smith delivered Scott with his second single.

Joe Adcock ripped a long home run in his first trip to the plate this spring and California went on to defeat the Cubs. It was the third straight victory for the Angels over Chicago.

Dickinson's 137 Leads In Citrus Open

By DUKE FERGUSON

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Gardner Dickinson has that lean and hungry look—hungry for the $21,000 first prize money in the $110,000 Florida Citrus Open golf tournament.

And if the slim, 130-pound player from Dothan, Ala., keeps playing the consistent golf he has the past two rounds, he may enrich his bank account considerably.

Dickinson, who has had his ups and downs on the tournament trial, took the lead Friday after the second round with 34-34—68 for a 36-hole total of 137, five under par.

Though Dickinson played good golf, it was the disintegration of Sam Snead's game that gave him a one stroke lead over the field.

Snead went into the second round leading with a five-under par 66, two strokes ahead of the nearest competitor, but blew it on the back nine, where he carded five bogeys. His 76 left him at even par for the two rounds with 142.

Dickinson's putting helped him into the lead going into today's third round, cut to 77 players out of a field of more than 140.

One stroke behind Dickinson are Dean Refram and Joe Campbell, with 36-hole totals of 138.

Two strokes off the lead are John Schlee, R. H. Sikes, and Bill Maxwell, all at 139. Dick Lythle, Tommy Bolt and Gay Brewer Jr., are tied at 140.

Player, competing in his first U.S. tournament of the season, missed the 147 cut, carding a 36-hole total of 150, and packed his bags. Nicklaus had rounds of 70-73 to bunch with six others at 143. Palmer, who was back at 145 with rounds of 75-70.

Bradley's new head basketball coach, Joe Stowell had a nine - year record of 120 won, 15 lost as a freshman coach at Bradley.

Moundsville And Dunbar To Clash For W. Va. Title

HUNTINGTON (AP) — Now they know it's so, Joe.

Moundsville Coach Joe Pelaez was complaining this week that his basketball team and its star, Bob Hummell, had been underrated this season.

Moundsville and Hummell made believers out of 5,000 fans and the Richwood team Friday night when they cut down the Lumberjacks, 77-72, in the Class AAA West Virginia High School Tournament.

The 6-foot-2 Hummell scored 45 points — four short of the tournament record — and grabbed 18 rebounds.

Said Hummell, "I would have pressed more but I thought the record was 41."

Said Richwood Coach Joe Andrick, "that boy Hummell, what more can you say. He was it and that was the story."

So Moundsville, which came into the tournament with a 17-6 record — poorest of the four Class AAA teams — now faces Dunbar tonight for the championship.

Dunbar moved away in the fourth quarter on the shooting of Jim Woodall to demolish defending champion Beckley, 76-57. Woodall got nine of his game-high 27 points in Dunbar's fourth quarter spurt.

Dunbar brought a 20-2 record into the tournament.

Huntington Vinson and Mullens who won their semifinal games Thursday night, were to meet this afternoon for the Class AA championship.

Piedmont was to meet Williamson Liberty in the second afternoon game for the Class A title.

Piedmont, led by John Niland and Reginald Fisher, came from nine points behind to beat Rainelle, 49-45, and Liberty whipped Ssitersville, 69-56, in Friday's semifinals.

Niland was Piedmont's top scorer with 22 points, but it was Fisher who led a fourth - period surge. He got nine of his 15 points in the last eight minutes.

Liberty, led by James Hairston with 20 points, had little difficulty, although Sistersville pulled to within four points in the last quarter. Then Sistersville's scoring ace, Bob Kelly, fouled out and all comeback hopes faded. Kelly scored 20 points.

Lakers, Bullets Notch NBA Wins

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The St. Louis Hawks, fighting for a playoff berth in the National Basketball Association Western Division, dropped a 132-120 decision Friday night to the Los Angeles Lakers.

In Friday's only other game, Baltimore clinched second place in the West by whipping Cincinnati 125-105 as Bailey Howell, Don Ohl and Jim Barnes combined for 72 points. The Bullets, with one game remaining, lead St. Louis by three.

The loss to LA cut the Hawks' third-place lead to one-half game over San Francisco, but Guerin was thinking positively.

St. Louis has three games remaining — tonight at home against Detroit, Sunday afternoon at Detroit and Tuesday night in New York.

San Francisco has just two to play — both against Los Angeles. Tonight the Warriors enjoy the home-court advantage, and Sunday night the California rivals close out the regular season here.

Violets Cast As Cinderella Team In Play

NEW YORK (AP) —Lou Rossini took his New York University basketball team into today's National Invitation Tournament championship match against Brigham Young with the air of a man who had nothing to lose.

The Violets weren't expected to make it into the tournament at all, and were one of the longest shots in the field to advance to the finals.

"I'm always confident," said Rossini Thursday night after his Violets had battled from behind after suffering through an eight minute scoring drought and eliminated Villanova 69-63. BYU made it to the finals by whipping Army 66-60.

NYU got into the tourney only by sheer tenacity, beating first Manhattan and then St. John's—both NIT invitees. The tournament committee gave the Violets the next-to-the-last bid in the 14-team field.

Both Rossini and BYU Coach Stan Watts agreed that NYU's Cinderella role might play in the Violets' favor today.

"Tournaments are funny, said Watts. "A team gets a hot hand and starts winning. NYU's got the emotional setup...the feel of a winning tournament team. They felt they were lucky to get into the tourney, so they're going to prove something."

"I'm optimistic," said Rossini. "My kids never have given up. They knocked off St. John's to get into the tournament and they've battled every minute to get to the final."

Brigham Young featured an explosive backcourt combination in Dick Nemelka and Jeff Congdon, helped by good height underneath in 6-5 Steve Kramer and 6-11 Craig Raymond.

The Violets counted on the playmaking and shooting of Mal Graham and hoped that 6-5 Charlie Silen and 6-5 Stan McKenzie could handle the Cougars off the boards.

Villanova and Army were to meet in the consolation game for third place.

Birdie's Talk To Tribe Pays With 6-2 Win

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — "I wanted to get some ideas across to them," said Manager Birdie Tebbetts, explaining his lecture to the Cleveland Indians prior to their exhibition game with the San Francisco Giants Friday.

Apparently he was successful.

The Indians beat the Giants, 6-2, to end their losing streak at three games and half the San Francisco winning streak at six games.

Tebbetts said he told the Indians "that it takes a certain amount of extra dedication — sacrifices a championship-type club has to make—to do the things I say, and it can do.

"I think this club will make those sacrifices, and that's what we visited about this morning," the manager continued.

Following the game, Tebbetts said he was "pleased with many things . . . mainly that we were alert out there."

He said he also was pleased with the hitting (the Indians got 10 hits) and the pitching.

The big blows were Duke Sims' double and a triple by Larry Brown.

Don McMahon, who held the Giants to one hit in the two innings he worked, gained the victory.

Leads 8 Into Regionals Finals

Unbeaten Lima Wins 24th In Row

By HAL PARIS
AP Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Unbeaten Lima Shawnee leads eight Ohio Class AA high School basketball teams into regional finals tonight pointing toward the state tournament next weekend in Columbus.

The No. 2 ranked Shawnee Indians, the only AA club with a perfect record, chalked up up their 24ts straight success Friday night by ousting seventh-rated Elyria, 59-54.

Lima, bidding for a second straight trip to St. John Arena, tangles with fifth-ranked Toledo Libbey tonight in the Bowling Green regional after Libbey (23-1) bounced Cleveland Adams 67-59.

Middletown (20-4) nipped Springfield South 77-76 and No. 3 ranked Dayton Chaminade (23-1) sidelined Cincinnati Elder 72-60 in the only other AA action.

Casualties were heavy in the small school competition with two unbeaten teams falling for the first time.

At Canton, Dalton (20-4) shocked No. 4 Bridgeport 71-70 handing the losers their first setback after 23 straight victories.

In other Class A skirmishes, Rittman (24-0) socked Kent State High 80-60 at Canton; No. 2 Rossford (24-0) withstood a furious finish by Celina ICHS to record 76-74 verdict at Lima; No. 6 Dixie (23-1) downed Yellow Springs 82-72 and Batavia (24-0) routed Newark Catholic 60-35 in a doubleheader at Troy and Ross Southeastern (19-7) clipped West Muskingum 66-61 and Portsmouth Clay (23-1) shaded Licking Valley 67-61 in a twin-bill at Athens.

The AA lineup for regional crowns tonight finds Cleveland East playing No. 4 Warren Harding (23-1) at Kent; Lancaster vs. tenth-rated Columbus East (17-5) at Columbus and Middletown challenging Dayton Chaminade at Cincinnati.

In one of the top games Friday, Middletown, a seven-time state champion, held off South's late bid and overcame a 38-point performance by the loser's Jody Finney.

Finney netted 12 points in one five-minute spurt in the final period but it wasn't enough. Ken Cohen paced the Middies with 26 and 21 points, respectively.

Chaminade pulled away in final period on a rash of free throws and outscored Elder 18-4 from the charity line. Dayton's Jim Gottschall tallied 23 and twin-brother Jerry scored 22 while teammate Gary Arthur chipped in with 21.

In Class A, Rossford had the biggest scare after building a 43-28 halftime advantage and a 22-point margin in the third quarter.

All-Ohio Kerry Myers rammed in 31 points in leading Celina's comeback bid that came within two points. Jim Penix netted 22 and Bill Gladieux 20 for the victors, who had won all their games this season by 11 points or more.

4 Games Scheduled Tonight In Y-Church League Action

Four games are on tap in tonight's straight elimination tournament of the YMCA-Church League, with the 16-team event pared to eight teams in Friday night action.

A feature tonight will be a rematch of last week's championship battle when Chester Christian tips off against Boyce Methodist at 6:15. Chester downed Boyce, 24-16, last Friday to capture the Church League title.

Chester Christian advanced to tonight's round by drubbing Chester Nazarene, 37-9, Friday as Staley pumped in 14 points and Whittaker 12. Bob Claypool paced the losers with 3.

Boyce advanced by turning back Wellsville Methodist, 23-12, as Oakes tallied 8 and Simmons 6 points. Maurer tallied 6 for Wellsville.

Other games on tap tonight are Chester Methodist vs. St. Aloysius, Oakland Free Methodist vs. St. Stephen's and St. John's Lutheran vs. LaCroft Nazarene.

Chester Methodist advanced by downing First Nazarene, 19-10, behind a nine - point performance of Collins.

St. Aloysius edged First Church of Christ, 13-12, as Ferello tossed in 6 markers. Kinsey took scoring honors in the losing effort with 7 points.

Oakland Free Methodist nudged Grace United Presbyterian, 15-12, as Bill Cox tallied 7 points.

St. Stephen's also won, 13-12, over First United Presbyterian as Salisbury scored 5 points.

St. John's beat Calvary Methodist, 15-9, with Cunningham tallying 7.

LaCroft Nazarene eliminated Glenmoor United Presbyterian, 17-10, as Randy McVay tallied 8 points and Tom Green 6.

Question Marks Hover Over Cardinal Lineup

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals really cleaned house last winter. They traded about everybody except Stan Musial and Gussie Busch. Bill White, Kenny Boyer and Dick Groat walked the plank. Any resemblance between the 1966 lineup and the World Series winners of 1964 will be purely coincidental.

The Cards put the accent on youth and speed, cut years off the roster and sliced thousands of dollars off the payroll. In the trade this is known as the rebuilding process.

There will be few, if any, picking the Cardinals to win the pennant this spring because there are too many question marks in the line-up. After all, three-fourths of the All-Star infield is gone. Third base, shortstop and first base must be manned by new men.

"We could come up to be first division," said Manager Red Schoendienst, who saw the Cards drop from first to seventh in his first year in command. "It is going to be a hard race to pick.

Red still is wrestling with his infield problems and he probably will fight it the rest of the spring. Charley Smith who hit 16 homers for the Mets, is to be the third baseman. He came to St. Louis with Al Jackson in the trade that sent Boyer to New York.

Julian Javier, only holdover infielder, is set at second if he can avoid injury. Shortstop probably will go to Jerry Buchek, whose .247 bat packs a little more punch than slick-fielding Dal Maxvill's .135.

George Kernek came up from Jacksonville with a home run rep and was groomed to take White's job. However, a twisted knee in early camp gave Bob Tolan a chance. The speedy Tolan may be tough to oust if he can master the tricks of playing the bag.

Schoendienst will have his problems thinning out his pitching staff. All are potential big winners but many have had problems in recent years.

Bob Gibson (20-12), Al Jackson (8-20 with the Mets), Ray Washburn (9-11) and Ray Sadecki (6-15) should be the front line. If Art Mahaffey (2-5 with the Phils) can bounce back to his 19 wins of 1962, he could make the staff.

Curt Simmons (9-15) is trying to come back from a bad year at the age of 36. Tracy Stallard (11-8) was bothered by a sore back in the early training season. Bob Purkey (10-9) also is available.

But Schoendienst glows when he talks about Nelson Briles (3-3), a hard-throwing 22-year-old, and Larry Jaster (3-0), who pitched three complete games in late season including an important victory over San Francisco that ruined the Giants.

Put them all together, plus lefty Hal Woodeshick (6-6) and Don Dennis (2-3) in the bullpen and it adds up to fine staff potential. Young Dennis Aust (8-4 at Jacksonville) also is highly regarded as a relief man.

Baseball Fails To Obtain Antitrust Suit Dismissal

By HARRY CHANDLER

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Baseball proceeded with its defense against antitrust charges today after failing to obtain dismissal of the case on the ground that the State of Wisconsin lacked jurisdiction and hadn't proved much of anything.

Over the protest of defense attorneys, Circuit Judge Elmer Roller ordered a Saturday morning session. He announced his decision after attorneys battled for several hours Friday over defense exhibits.

Baseball attorneys argued Friday that the sport's exemption from federal antitrust regulation extended to the present case, which resulted from the Braves move from Milwaukee to Atlanta.

Wisconsin accused the National League of violating the state's antitrust law by authorizing the transfer and refusing to grant Milwaukee an expansion franchise. The state charged conspiracy and illegal use of the monopolistic structure of organized baseball to boycott Milwaukee as a major league city.

Judge Roller in rejecting the dismissal motion said he was satisfied the court had jurisdiction and upheld the state's claim that it had met the legal requirements for cause of action.

Earl Jinkinson of Chicago, an attorney representing the Braves, told the court "Baseball is as exempt from the Wisconsin antitrust act as it is from the Sherman Act. No state law can reach beyond its borders. It is beyond the power of the state to interfere."

U. S. Supreme Court rulings in 1922, 1953 and 1957 were cited by Bowie L. Kuhn, National League attorney, as decisions specifically exempting baseball from antitrust legislation. He added that Congress had seen fit to make baseball self-regulating.

Jinkinson told Judge Roller that if he ordered the Braves to return to Milwaukee it would bankrupt the club.

Steven Keane, special counsel for Milwaukee County, said the state had proved that National League owners had "by agreement" decided that Milwaukee "would not have a baseball team in 1966." He said that constituted a boycott.

Woman Doctor Ousted From All-Men Prison

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind. (AP) —A woman doctor at the all-men Indiana State Prison has been dismissed for "administrative reasons."

Dr. Else K. Bell, who formerly operated a clinic in Bryan, Ohio, was hired by the prison in 1963 amid criticism from the Indiana State Medical Association. The association said some of her treatments—specifically flushing the bloodstream with a saline solution—were of dubious value medically.

Gonzales Whips Fullmer, But Wants World Title

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "The American title is okay," says Jose Gonzalez, "but I want to be middleweight champion of the world."

The body-banging New Yorker by way of Puerto Rico took the synthetic title from Don Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, on a unanimous decision in 12 scrappy rounds at Madison Square Garden Friday night.

If Tiger wins he most likely will defend it next in London or Rome and probably against Italy's Nino Benvenuti, the European middleweight ruler and world junior middleweight champ.

"If Archer turns it down I think we can get Benvenuti," said matchmaker Teddy Brenner.

"If the price is right, I'll fight anyone," said Gonzalez. "I just hope it's for the big one. I'm the No. 1 contender, but all I do is wait and wait."

He dropped Fullmer in the eighth round with a light left and right to the head, but it looked more like a slip. Both fighters agreed on this later.

Fullmer admitted he didn't get off well and wasn't at his best. Yet he said, "I thought I won it, seven rounds to five at least."

Reds' Batters Shake Slump, But Lose, 8-7

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) —Cincinnati batters snapped out of a hitting slump Friday, but the Reds still lost 8-7 in an exhibition game to the Boston Red Sox.

The defeat was the fourth straight for the Reds, giving them a record of only three victories and six losses in the Grapefruit League.

The Reds pounded out 12 hits off four Boston hurlers. In the five previous games, the Reds had managed only a total of 22 hits.

Boston, however, clubbed the Reds for an equal number of hits, all of them coming off Sammy Ellis and Jimmy O'Toole.

The Reds blew two leads.

Ellis was plagued with control trouble from the start. He was chased in the fourth inning when the Red Sox erupted for four runs off the 22-game winner of 1965.

O'Toole was sent to the showers in the eighth inning as Boston pushed across the tieing and winning runs.

Lindy McDaniel, who worked in 71 games for the Chicago Cubs last season, figures to see much relief duty with the San Francisco Giants this year. Actually, he replaces pitcher Masonari Murikami who played with the Giants last year but is back in Japan.

Hershey Thinks Clay Would Make 'A Good Soldier'

GRANVILLE, N.Y. (AP) — The man who directed the United States' military draft thinks that Cassius (Muhammed Ali) Clay, the world's heavyweight boxing champion, would make a good soldier.

Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, director of the U.S. Selective Service System, offered that opinion Friday after he was honored by the people of this upstate New York village at "General Hershey Day."

Gen. Hershey came here on the invitation of an Army friend, Lt. Col. MacArthur H. Manchester, now retired.

Clay, who recently was reclassified 1-A after he earlier had scored low on an intelligence test, "has one of the qualities necessary" to be a good soldier, Hershey said. "He's a fighter."

Referring to Clay's score on an armed forces qualification test, Hershey said, "Those who score good (on the test) are not necessarily good soldiers."

"Some people have suggested that Clay be sent to either frighten or bore the Viet Cong," Hershey commented, "but I don't go along with that."

The National Marbles Tournament was inaugurated in 1924.

Russ Crane, 59, Ex-WVU Football Assistant, Dies

MORGANTOWN (AP) — The West Virginia University line coach who turned out such stars as Sam Huff, Bruce Bosley, Chuck Howley, Joe Nicely and Bob Orders died in University Hospital here Friday.

Russ Crane, an All - America guard at Illinois in the 1920s, succumbed to an illness which forced him to give up coaching three years ago. The 59-year-old Chicago native was suffering from emphysema.

Crane was a line coach for the Mountaineers for 14 years. Before that he coached at Richmond, Ohio University and Washington and Lee.

Former WVU head Coach Gene Corum said Friday that Crane "had the rare ability at leading young men and guiding them. All across the nation you'll find boys who've played and studied under Russ."

Among his survivors are his widow and a son and a daughter. A memorial service will be held Sunday afternoon at the Episcopal Church here. Cremation will follow.

A mule is the mascot of the Kansas City Athletics of the American Baseball League.

Question Marks Hover Over Cardinal Lineup

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals really cleaned house last winter. They traded about everybody except Stan Musial and Gussie Busch. Bill White, Kenny Boyer and Dick Groat walked the plank. Any resemblance between the 1966 lineup and the World Series winners of 1964 will be purely coincidental.

The Cards put the accent on youth and speed, cut years off the roster and sliced thousands of dollars off the payroll. In the trade this is known as the rebuilding process.

There will be few, if any, picking the Cardinals to win the pennant this spring because there are too many question marks in the line-up. After all, three-fourths of the All-Star infield is gone. Third base, shortstop and first base must be manned by new men.

"We could come up to be first division," said Manager Red Schoendienst, who saw the Cards drop from first to seventh in his first year in command. "It is going to be a hard race to pick.

Red still is wrestling with his infield problems and he probably will fight it the rest of the spring. Charley Smith who hit 16 homers for the Mets, is to be the third baseman. He came to St. Louis with Al Jackson in the trade that sent Boyer to New York.

Julian Javier, only holdover infielder, is set at second if he can avoid injury. Shortstop probably will go to Jerry Buchek, whose .247 bat packs a little more punch than slick-fielding Dal Maxvill's .135.

George Kernek came up from Jacksonville with a home run rep and was groomed to take White's job. However, a twisted knee in early camp gave Bob Tolan a chance. The speedy Tolan may be tough to oust if he can master the tricks of playing the bag.

Schoendienst will have his problems thinning out his pitching staff. All are potential big winners but many have had problems in recent years.

Bob Gibson (20-12), Al Jackson (8-20 with the Mets), Ray Washburn (9-11) and Ray Sadecki (6-15) should be the front line. If Art Mahaffey (2-5 with the Phils) can bounce back to his 19 wins of 1962, he could make the staff.

Curt Simmons (9-15) is trying to come back from a bad year at the age of 36. Tracy Stallard (11-8) was bothered by a sore back in the early training season. Bob Purkey (10-9) also is available.

But Schoendienst glows when he talks about Nelson Briles (3-3), a hard-throwing 22-year-old, and Larry Jaster (3-0), who pitched three complete games in late season including an important victory over San Francisco that ruined the Giants.

Put them all together, plus lefty Hal Woodeshick (6-6) and Don Dennis (2-3) in the bullpen and it adds up to fine staff potential. Young Dennis Aust (8-4 at Jacksonville) also is highly regarded as a relief man.

Baseball Fails To Obtain Antitrust Suit Dismissal

By HARRY CHANDLER

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Baseball proceeded with its defense against antitrust charges today after failing to obtain dismissal of the case on the ground that the State of Wisconsin lacked jurisdiction and hadn't proved much of anything.

Over the protest of defense attorneys, Circuit Judge Elmer Roller ordered a Saturday morning session. He announced his decision after attorneys battled for several hours Friday over defense exhibits.

Baseball attorneys argued Friday that the sport's exemption from federal antitrust regulation extended to the present case, which resulted from the Braves move from Milwaukee to Atlanta.

Wisconsin accused the National League of violating the state's antitrust law by authorizing the transfer and refusing to grant Milwaukee an expansion franchise. The state charged conspiracy and illegal use of the monopolistic structure of organized baseball to boycott Milwaukee as a major league city.

Judge Roller in rejecting the dismissal motion said he was satisfied the court had jurisdiction and upheld the state's claim that it had met the legal requirements for cause of action.

Earl Jinkinson of Chicago, an attorney representing the Braves, told the court "Baseball is as exempt from the Wisconsin antitrust act as it is from the Sherman Act. No state law can reach beyond its borders. It is beyond the power of the state to interfere."

U. S. Supreme Court rulings in 1922, 1953 and 1957 were cited by Bowie L. Kuhn, National League attorney, as decisions specifically exempting baseball from antitrust legislation. He added that Congress had seen fit to make baseball self-regulating.

Jinkinson told Judge Roller that if he ordered the Braves to return to Milwaukee it would bankrupt the club.

Steven Keane, special counsel for Milwaukee County, said the state had proved that National League owners had "by agreement" decided that Milwaukee "would not have a baseball team in 1966." He said that constituted a boycott.

Woman Doctor Ousted From All-Men Prison

Dr. Else K. Bell, who formerly operated a clinic in Bryan, Ohio, was hired by the prison in 1963 amid criticism from the Indiana State Medical Association. The association said some of her treatments—specifically flushing the bloodstream with a saline solution—were of dubious value medically.

Reds' Batters Shake Slump, But Lose, 8-7

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) —Cincinnati batters snapped out of a hitting slump Friday, but the Reds still lost 8-7 in an exhibition game to the Boston Red Sox.

The defeat was the fourth straight for the Reds, giving them a record of only three victories and six losses in the Grapefruit League.

The Reds pounded out 12 hits off four Boston hurlers. In the five previous games, the Reds had managed only a total of 22 hits.

Boston, however, clubbed the Reds for an equal number of hits, all of them coming off Sammy Ellis and Jimmy O'Toole.

The Reds blew two leads.

Ellis was plagued with control trouble from the start. He was chased in the fourth inning when the Red Sox erupted for four runs off the 22-game winner of 1965.

O'Toole was sent to the showers in the eighth inning as Boston pushed across the tieing and winning runs.

Lindy McDaniel, who worked in 71 games for the Chicago Cubs last season, figures to see much relief duty with the San Francisco Giants this year. Actually, he replaces pitcher Masonari Murikami who played with the Giants last year but is back in Japan.

Gonzales Whips Fullmer, But Wants World Title

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "The American title is okay," says Jose Gonzalez, "but I want to be middleweight champion of the world."

The body-banging New Yorker by way of Puerto Rico took the synthetic title from Don Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, on a unanimous decision in 12 scrappy rounds at Madison Square Garden Friday night.

If Tiger wins he most likely will defend it next in London or Rome and probably against Italy's Nino Benvenuti, the European middleweight ruler and world junior middleweight champ.

"If Archer turns it down I think we can get Benvenuti," said matchmaker Teddy Brenner.

"If the price is right, I'll fight anyone," said Gonzalez. "I just hope it's for the big one. I'm the No. 1 contender, but all I do is wait and wait."

He dropped Fullmer in the eighth round with a light left and right to the head, but it looked more like a slip. Both fighters agreed on this later.

Fullmer admitted he didn't get off well and wasn't at his best. Yet he said, "I thought I won it, seven rounds to five at least."

GRANVILLE, N.Y. (AP) — The man who directed the United States' military draft thinks that Cassius (Muhammed Ali) Clay, the world's heavyweight boxing champion, would make a good soldier.

Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, director of the U.S. Selective Service System, offered that opinion Friday after he was honored by the people of this upstate New York village at "General Hershey Day."

Gen. Hershey came here on the invitation of an Army friend, Lt. Col. MacArthur H. Manchester, now retired.

Clay, who recently was reclassified 1-A after he earlier had scored low on an intelligence test, "has one of the qualities necessary" to be a good soldier, Hershey said. "He's a fighter."

Referring to Clay's score on an armed forces qualification test, Hershey said, "Those who score good (on the test) are not necessarily good soldiers."

"Some people have suggested that Clay be sent to either frighten or bore the Viet Cong," Hershey commented, "but I don't go along with that."

The National Marbles Tournament was inaugurated in 1924.

Russ Crane, 59, Ex-WVU Football Assistant, Dies

MORGANTOWN (AP) — The West Virginia University line coach who turned out such stars as Sam Huff, Bruce Bosley, Chuck Howley, Joe Nicely and Bob Orders died in University Hospital here Friday.

Russ Crane, an All - America guard at Illinois in the 1920s, succumbed to an illness which forced him to give up coaching three years ago. The 59-year-old Chicago native was suffering from emphysema.

Crane was a line coach for the Mountaineers for 14 years. Before that he coached at Richmond, Ohio University and Washington and Lee.

Former WVU head Coach Gene Corum said Friday that Crane "had the rare ability at leading young men and guiding them. All across the nation you'll find boys who've played and studied under Russ."

Among his survivors are his widow and a son and a daughter. A memorial service will be held Sunday afternoon at the Episcopal Church here. Cremation will follow.

A mule is the mascot of the Kansas City Athletics of the American Baseball League.

2 IN MEMORIAM

RAYMOND HUBBARD. In loving remembrance of our dear husband, father, and grandfather, who died a year ago today.
His wife Pearl and children.

In memory of Loretta Goodlin who passed away one year ago today, March 19, 1965. Dear One, how much we miss you. Though you've been gone from us a year. Thank God for precious memories that keep you near. Sadly missed by Mother, Brothers and Sisters.

In memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Loretta L. Goodlin, who passed away 1 year ago today March 19, 1965.
When evening shadows fall and we are sitting all alone, in my heart there comes a longing if you only could come home. They say time heals all sorrow and helps us to forget, but time so far has only proved how much we miss you yet. Although your soul is now at rest free from care and pain. Today would seem like heaven if we had you back again. God gives us strength to carry on and courage to heal the blow, but what it meant to lose you no one will ever know. You bid no one a last farewell or even said good-by. You were gone before we knew it, and only God knows why. Sadly missed by Daughters, Sons and Grandchildren.

3 CARDS OF THANKS

WE wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all the kind friends, relatives and neighbors whose expressions of sympathy meant so much to us upon the sudden death of Harry (Boog) French.
Mrs. Harry French and Family

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2 IN MEMORIAM

RAYMOND HUBBARD. In loving remembrance of our dear husband, father, and grandfather, who died a year ago today.
His wife Pearl and children.

In memory of Loretta Goodlin who passed away one year ago today, March 19, 1965. Dear One, how much we miss you. Though you've been gone from us a year. Thank God for precious memories that keep you near. Sadly missed by Mother, Brothers and Sisters.

In memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Loretta L. Goodlin, who passed away 1 year ago today March 19, 1965.
When evening shadows fall and we are sitting all alone, in my heart there comes a longing if you only could come home. They say time heals all sorrow and helps us to forget, but time so far has only proved how much we miss you yet. Although your soul is now at rest free from care and pain, Today would seem like heaven if we had you back again. God gives us strength to carry on and courage to heal the blow, but what it meant to lose you no one will ever know. You bid no one a last farewell or even said good-by. You were gone before we knew it, and only God knows why. Sadly missed by Daughters, Sons and Grandchildren.

3 CARDS OF THANKS

WE wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all the kind friends, relatives and neighbors whose expressions of sympathy meant so much to us upon the sudden death of Harry (Boog) French.
Mrs. Harry French and Family

Junior Editors Quiz on FINGER PRINTS

QUESTION: Why are fingerprnits used to identify people?

ANSWER: Emperors in ancient China used to sign documents with a pressure of the thumb, so they must have known something of the value of fingerprints. But it was a long time before the full usefulness of fingerprints for identification purposes was realized. People may have the same measurements and tatoo marks may be imitated, but the fingerprint record is infallible. Its a remarkable fact that no two sets of fingerprints have been found which are exactly alike.

Realizing the value of this to identify people, the FBI has made a collection of more than 150 million fingerprints. Servicemen, government workers and others have their prints taken. To do this, printer's ink is spread on glass, the person's fingertips pressed on the ink and then rolled from side to side on paper. In criminal cases, unseen prints are frequently left on guns, safes and so on. Using powders and chemicals, detectives can get clear pictures of such prints, which can be checked against the prints of suspected persons. There are three main fingerprint patterns. The arch (A) has lines going across; the whorl (B) has lines which go round a center; and in the loop (C) the lines make a horseshoe shape.

FOR YOU TO DO: If you can borrow a bit of lipstick, you can make your own fingerprints. Spread it on your fingertips and roll them on paper.

Not Even Planning Memoirs

Earl Warren, 75, Today, Not Leaving Court Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — Earl Warren, 75 today, is not giving serious thought to stepping down as chief justice of the United States. He isn't even planning his memoirs.

But he thinks it would be a good idea — provided Congress and the people agree — for a compulsory retirement age to be set for all public officials.

The silvery-haired Californian, the first Westerner to head the Supreme Court, spoke with the bounce and zest of a man half his age as he chatted with reporters this week in his office.

He was looking forward to "the first birthday party I've had since I was a boy" and, noting Washington's recent spell of mild spring-like weather, wished he could be playing baseball again.

Except that he has quit walking part of the way to work in the morning and doing setting up exercises regularly, Warren doesn't seem to be making any concessions to age.

He still gets up at the ring of an alarm clock at 6:30 a.m., puts in a six-day week at the court and emphatically rejects any consideration of leaving the bench.

Barring impeachment and conviction by Congress, federal judges serve for life. They can retire at 70 at full pay if they have been on the bench 10 years. Warren, whose annual pay is $40,000, qualifies.

Dressed informally in an olive-brown business suit, golden shirt and brown-figured tie, Warren reflected the geniality which has been his stock in trade in a public career that began in 1919 as an assistant to the Oakland city attorney.

Though he said "I always let birthdays pass without emphasis," he was looking forward to the party tonight that will bring together five of the six children, colleagues and friends. It is being given here by his daughter, Virginia, and her husband, newsman John Charles Daly.

Since taking the oath as chief justice Oct. 5, 1953 — he was nominated by President Dwight D. Eisenhower during his third term as governor of California — Warren has headed an active court.

Segregated public schools have been flatly outlawed, the states ordered to reapportion congressional districts and their legislatures on a one-man, one-vote basis, and compulsory Bible reading and prayer recitation banned in the public schools.

These and other rulings have stimulated a cascade of criticism of the court and of Warren.

Aid OK'd For Beaver Local Kindergartens In 4 Schools

A federal grant of $6,247 has been approved for a Beaver Local School District kindergarten program which will be held June 20-July 29, Supt. Roy Cashdollar announced Friday.

Cashdollar said approval was given this week for the project in which funds will be provided for classes and teachers at West Point, Calcutta, Elkton and Rogers, along with money for materials and snacks for children of 5.

About 100 youngsters are expected for the kindergarten, the first in the district for three years.

The six - week sessions will be held in the mornings.

Funds under the National Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 were given final approval by R. A. Horn, director of the Division of Federal Assistance at Columbus.

Also approved was $5,451 for expenditure on library books and other printed matter plus audio-visual aid materials for all the Beaver Local schools.

The law stipulates 50 per cent or more must be provided for elementary classes. Cashdollar said 60 per cent is earmarked in the Beaver Local plan.

Cashdollar added three other projects are being considered for Beaver Local under the federal aid plan.

1 Killed, 2 Injured In Crash Of 2 Cars

YOUNGWOOD, Pa. (AP) — A two-car collision on Route 119 near this Westmoreland County town has fatally injured one man and injured two other persons.

Dead was John E. Nichols, 60, of Scottdale, operator of a car in which his wife, Helen, 57, was a passenger.

Nichols died Friday at Frick Community Hospital at Mount Pleasant shortly after being admitted. Mrs. Nichols was listed in fairly good condition at the same hospital.

The other driver, Vernon Van Dyke, 41, of Hunker, R.D. 1, was taken to Westmoreland Hospital at Greensburg.

Kennedy Warmly Applauded At 2 Southern Schools

OXFORD, Miss. (AP) — Robert F. Kennedy was warmly applauded and cheered in appearances at the Universities of Mississippi and Alabama — two institutions which were forcibly integrated when he was U.S. attorney general.

"I know there was some controversy about my being invited here," Kennedy, now U.S. senator from New York, told Ole Miss students Friday.

"Some compared it with inviting a fox into a hen house," said the Democrat, "but some of my friends thought it was more like putting a chicken in a fox house."

Kennedy alternated between the humorous and the deeply serious in both speeches. He flew by private plane to Tuscaloosa to speak to University of Alabama students after his appearance at Ole Miss.

Kennedy told the audience of 5,000 Mississippi students and faculty members that former Gov. Ross Barnett bears full responsibility for the 1962 riots stemming from the federal court-ordered admittance of James H. Meredith, a Negro.

Ball Hits Youth, Woman's Burned When Soup Spills

A youth hit with a ball and a woman burned while cooking were admitted to City Hospital, where six other persons were treated Friday.

Mrs. Gloria Van Dyke of Lawrenceville, Chester, was in "fair" condition with first-degree burns of the hands, feet and chest suffered when hot soup spilled on her while working at Waterford Park.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kirk of Pittsburgh suffered contusions of the left ankle and right knee in a fall on W. 5th St.

Shafer Favors Judicial Probe Of Wiretapping

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Lt. Gov. Raymond P. Shafer says a judicial rather than a legislative investigation could better determine the facts of alleged wiretapping by the state police.

Shafer, in Pittsburgh Friday to attend a Republican function, said the public has the right to know the facts about wiretapping and deserves protection against the device.

But he said the legislature's investigation of the state police had turned into a "partisan political action."

"The state police have been kept out of politics and should be kept out of politics," the candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination said.

He said the hearing was hurting state police morale and "making a mockery of a truly legislative investigation."

George F. Pott, Allegheny County GOP chairman, said Republican headquarters had received threatening calls against Shafer and Gov. Scranton. Extra troops guarded Shafer. Scranton was not in the city.

Dresden Mishap Damages 2 Cars

Two cars were damaged in a mishap early Friday afternoon in the 1000 block of Dresden Ave., police reported.

The collision involved a 1962 four-door sedan driven by Helen May Joy, 49, of Highland Dr., Calcutta, and a 1965 four - door operated by William B. Crabtree, 56, of R. D. 3.

The Calcutta woman told Patrolman Paul Burson Jr. she had pulled her auto onto the sidewalk to help an older woman alight. As she began to proceed, she did not see any oncoming traffic, she said. Crabtree, driving north about 25 miles an hour, said the woman pulled in front of his car and he was unable to halt in time to avoid a collision.

The mishap damaged the left rear of the Joy auto and the right front of Crabtree's car, police said.

Not Even Planning Memoirs

Earl Warren, 75, Today, Not Leaving Court Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — Earl Warren, 75 today, is not giving serious thought to stepping down as chief justice of the United States. He isn't even planning his memoirs.

But he thinks it would be a good idea — provided Congress and the people agree — for a compulsory retirement age to be set for all public officials.

The silvery-haired Californian, the first Westerner to head the Supreme Court, spoke with the bounce and zest of a man half his age as he chatted with reporters this week in his office.

He was looking forward to "the first birthday party I've had since I was a boy" and, noting Washington's recent spell of mild spring-like weather, wished he could be playing baseball again.

Except that he has quit walking part of the way to work in the morning and doing setting up exercises regularly, Warren doesn't seem to be making any concessions to age.

He still gets up at the ring of an alarm clock at 6:30 a.m., puts in a six-day week at the court and emphatically rejects any consideration of leaving the bench.

Barring impeachment and conviction by Congress, federal judges serve for life. They can retire at 70 at full pay if they have been on the bench 10 years. Warren, whose annual pay is $40,000, qualifies.

Dressed informally in an olive-brown business suit, golden shirt and brown-figured tie, Warren reflected the geniality which has been his stock in trade in a public career that began in 1919 as an assistant to the Oakland city attorney.

Though he said "I always let birthdays pass without emphasis," he was looking forward to the party tonight that will bring together five of the six children, colleagues and friends. It is being given here by his daughter, Virginia, and her husband, newsman John Charles Daly.

Since taking the oath as chief justice Oct. 5, 1953 — he was nominated by President Dwight D. Eisenhower during his third term as governor of California — Warren has headed an active court.

Segregated public schools have been flatly outlawed, the states ordered to reapportion congressional districts and their legislatures on a one-man, one-vote basis, and compulsory Bible reading and prayer recitation banned in the public schools.

These and other rulings have stimulated a cascade of criticism of the court and of Warren.

Aid OK'd For Beaver Local Kindergartens In 4 Schools

A federal grant of $6,247 has been approved for a Beaver Local School District kindergarten program which will be held June 20-July 29, Supt. Roy Cashdollar announced Friday.

Cashdollar said approval was given this week for the project in which funds will be provided for classes and teachers at West Point, Calcutta, Elkton and Rogers, along with money for materials and snacks for children of 5.

About 100 youngsters are expected for the kindergarten, the first in the district for three years.

The six - week sessions will be held in the mornings.

Funds under the National Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 were given final approval by R. A. Horn, director of the Division of Federal Assistance at Columbus.

Also approved was $5,451 for expenditure on library books and other printed matter plus audio-visual aid materials for all the Beaver Local schools.

The law stipulates 50 per cent or more must be provided for elementary classes. Cashdollar said 60 per cent is earmarked in the Beaver Local plan.

Cashdollar added three other projects are being considered for Beaver Local under the federal aid plan.

Kennedy Warmly Applauded At 2 Southern Schools

OXFORD, Miss. (AP) — Robert F. Kennedy was warmly applauded and cheered in appearances at the Universities of Mississippi and Alabama — two institutions which were forcibly integrated when he was U.S. attorney general.

"I know there was some controversy about my being invited here," Kennedy, now U.S. senator from New York, told Ole Miss students Friday.

"Some compared it with inviting a fox into a hen house," said the Democrat, "but some of my friends thought it was more like putting a chicken in a fox house."

Kennedy alternated between the humorous and the deeply serious in both speeches. He flew by private plane to Tuscaloosa to speak to University of Alabama students after his appearance at Ole Miss.

Kennedy told the audience of 5,000 Mississippi students and faculty members that former Gov. Ross Barnett bears full responsibility for the 1962 riots stemming from the federal court-ordered admittance of James H. Meredith, a Negro.

Shafer Favors Judicial Probe Of Wiretapping

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Lt. Gov. Raymond P. Shafer says a judicial rather than a legislative investigation could better determine the facts of alleged wiretapping by the state police.

Shafer, in Pittsburgh Friday to attend a Republican function, said the public has the right to know the facts about wiretapping and deserves protection against the device.

But he said the legislature's investigation of the state police had turned into a "partisan political action."

"The state police have been kept out of politics and should be kept out of politics," the candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination said.

He said the hearing was hurting state police morale and "making a mockery of a truly legislative investigation."

George F. Pott, Allegheny County GOP chairman, said Republican headquarters had received threatening calls against Shafer and Gov. Scranton. Extra troops guarded Shafer. Scranton was not in the city.

Dresden Mishap Damages 2 Cars

Two cars were damaged in a mishap early Friday afternoon in the 1000 block of Dresden Ave., police reported.

The collision involved a 1962 four-door sedan driven by Helen May Joy, 49, of Highland Dr., Calcutta, and a 1965 four - door operated by William B. Crabtree, 56, of R. D. 3.

The Calcutta woman told Patrolman Paul Burson Jr. she had pulled her auto onto the sidewalk to help an older woman alight. As she began to proceed, she did not see any oncoming traffic, she said. Crabtree, driving north about 25 miles an hour, said the woman pulled in front of his car and he was unable to halt in time to avoid a collision.

The mishap damaged the left rear of the Joy auto and the right front of Crabtree's car, police said.
